Dear People of God,

I get asked any number of questions which make me wonder whether anyone actually reads the parish bulletin. There are those who want to know when Mass is going to be for some special occasion, there are others who want to know why some event or function advertised week after week hasn't been promoted, and there are those who often ask about the financial reports which I can understand might be a little difficult to follow since at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, we have to operate out of a balanced budget. Part of the process is to make a good guess, based on prior years' income, how well we'll do in our regular and special collections. The budget has to be in the diocesan financial office several months earlier for approval, so our guesses are based on what we know from past years and the best estimates of well-established financial people as to how well the economy is going to do during the year. Generally, parishes will post weekly offering income since weekly offering income is supposed to cover the expected operating costs anticipated in the same budget that established the weekly income figure. There are other sources of income which don't get posted since they are often off the budget, things like wedding or funeral stipends since we don't know how many weddings are going to be scheduled and we hope there won't be any funerals. Of course, we know there are both and there are other income streams as well, but these are not supposed to be used to cover operations but for other things like capital improvements, unexpected major maintenance and repairs and things like that which can't be predicted so aren't in the budget. So, if you're still following this conversation, the weekly income from offerings is supposed to be compared to the weekly average expenses as budgeted for the year ahead, which is to say one-fifty-second of the total we expect to spend on ordinary operating expenses, which include electricity, gas, supplies, salaries, insurance, diocesan assessments and the like. That yields a number that is either over or below the hoped for ordinary weekly collections from your offerings. If the budget is less than the income we all breathe easier and wear big smiles. If the budgeted figure is higher than the weekly collection we all begin to pace nervously because that means we can't anticipate paying our ordinary expected expenses. Of course, the budget also has guesses for those other income streams so in the end we may or may not finish the year 'in the black' if we come close to guessing what those other streams will yield. It's a difficult job estimating income and expense and a difficult job in deciding how that should be reported since the real goal is to let our regular contributors know where we stand and to invite those who don't regularly donate to the parish to begin doing so. A parish relies on its members more than on any other financial source so that weekly summary hopes to point out and underline the participation of the parish in its own future.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

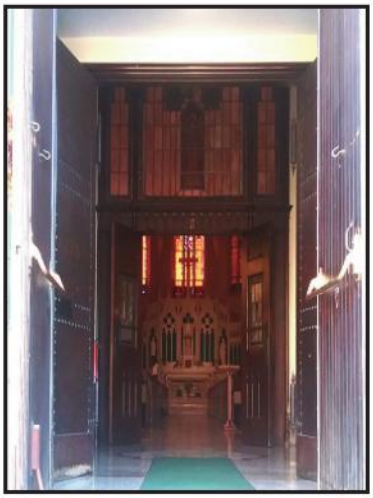
Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.



We would like to welcome our visitors to Immaculate Conception Church. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners are on the visitor's stand in the back of church….don't be bashful...sign up! Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Children's Liturgy is beginning its summer break! Thank you to our volunteers who have so graciously worked with the kids, and given them take homes for the Word of God! See you all in the fall! If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please let Cathy Carroll know, or call the parish office and Barb will pass your information along!

Alas! Hospitality is winding down for the summer also! Our last day will be Sunday, June 10th! We will take some time off and be back with our fall cookout at a date to be announced later!

With that announcement, comes the news that we will again bring back our every other Sunday ICE CREAM Socials! Our first gathering will be Sunday July 8th! Plan on staying after the Sunday mass and enjoying the cool refreshment of your choice: Sundae, float, cone? We may find a few sweet nibbles to go with the cool treats!

We have been able to plant some flowers around the church to perk up the landscape and make our parish look "cared for", as one person put it! We, as you may or may not know, have limited staff to water and care for our handiwork! Kelly Marquis, who takes care of the inside of the church, cutting grass and whatever else she can do in the 24 hours a week she is here, so here we are! Our only other paid employee at this time is our secretary, Barb Marquis, who works 25 hours a week, and does all the other "stuff". If you know of someone who might be able to take one day a week, or more, to help out, it would be appreciated! Talk to Mary Jo, or call the parish office and give your information to Barb!

We are looking for 1 more wedding dress to display in June for our 150th "Celebration of Marriage Past, Present & Future" for part of our Sesquicentennial Celebration.
Call the parish office (419-243-1829) if you or someone you know is willing to let us borrow your dress for the month of June.
