ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Every now and then I get unsigned letters from people: some might be parishioners, others from somebody who reads the bulletin on line or who may stop by on a weekend, and I suppose some are because of the work I do for the Diocese. I have no idea what might be in those letters because I don't read them. They wind up in "file 13" where I believe they belong. I may have missed out on winning some African lottery that only requires that I send in $15,000 first, but in general I don't think I've missed anything by tossing unsigned things into the trash. Allow me to explain. At the bottom of this letter, I put my name down so people know who said what I'm saying. At Mass people, even strangers visiting, know who I am because my name is listed in the schedule of Masses. My name is on the front of the Bulletin as Pastor and my name is in the Diocesan Directory linking me to the various positions I hold in service to the people of God. I have my name out there so people can comment, complain, advise, contradict, admonish, teach or do whatever they might want to do. I don't hide behind the wall when I preach; I don't write these letters anonymously. Neither should those who wish to communicate with me. People who want to tell me something should be proud enough of their own point of view, their own opinion, their own background to put themselves on the same line I do every time I write a letter or preach a homily or issue a Sentence through the Tribunal. It's common courtesy and allows a dialogue to begin whereas anonymity means there can be no conversation, no meeting of the minds. As I've already said, I throw unsigned letters out without reading them so I don't have any idea where a conversation might begin. I suspect that most people who write anonymous letters are actually talking to themselves, attempting to articulate something about which they feel great passion and excitement, but which they feel might lead to a backlash, resentment, or anger which could be directed at them if the recipient knew who sent it. I always write my letters to people with whom I have a gripe and set them aside a day or two, then reread them and usually rewrite them before putting my name on them so I don't accidentally make some foolish remark or ad hominem attack, but then I sign them and send them on in hopes of getting a response (I like to write Congress if only to get a franked envelope to add to my collection – they rarely write back but only send a nice mimeographed form letter). I would invite anyone who has a complaint, comment, or whatever to write me, but please, if you expect me to read what you write, have the courtesy to add your name.

Meg. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Your Christian Formation Committee:

Janet Hickey, Judy Place, Kristen Tighe, and Mary Jo Pilcher are preparing for YOU a prayer service of Thanksgiving for Wednesday evening, Nov. 14th at 6:30 PM. It is good for us to pause and remember that we have much to be thankful for before we FEAST the next week. "It is right, always and everywhere, to give thanks to our God." Please put this on your calendar.

LECTOR HANDBOOKS

For our lectors: the new Lector Handbook is in the back office on the countertop to the left as you go through the door. It is a purplish color, and I hope to get a list of names there so you can check off your name as you take yours! This begins with Advent, the first Sunday in December.

We are asked to consider many worthy charities in our wills.....would you consider making Immaculate Conception worthy?

Thank you SO much for all of our wonderful parishioners who provided food for the Veterans reception! You guys are great! Get ready for Homecoming on Dec. 9th! .... As if you're not doing enough cooking these next few weeks! Of course that doesn't stop us from "begging"!

We continue to update/add to our parish data base. Several of the e-mails and addresses we have are no longer valid. Also if you don't see your birthday or anniversary on our monthly list that is because it is not in the data base. If you could please fill your information out below and put it in the offering basket or you can e-mail it to toldarbyicc@sbcglobal.net.

For some reason when I go to get into my church email its telling me I am using the wrong password. So for that reason I have not been able to get my parish emails or any emails, that I have to send the bulletin to. I am waiting on my tech guy to come and look at it so until then please send all email to bada330@aol.com or toldarbyicc73@aol.com. For those who usually get a bulletin emailed I received a few failure notices. So if you normally get a bulletin emailed and did not receive it in the last weeks please call me at 419-243-1829 or send me an email to one of the addresses above. I am sorry for the inconvenience. Hopefully it will all be fixed by the end of the week.
