ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Someone asked me the other day what happened to the Anointing of the Sick which in the good old days nobody wanted to receive. For those too young to know the history of the Anointing, it was at one time called Extreme Unction and the extreme meant at the time of death. For some reasons not entirely understood, in the Middle Ages many of the sacraments were rarely celebrated by the lay faithful. Oh, sure, people went to Mass but they merely “heard” the prayers and did not assist or receive communion, a fact which required the Church to issue one of the precepts of the Church: You must receive communion at least once a year, during the Easter Season. There was a false notion that people were unworthy of the sacraments; many even held off on Baptism until they were close to death, at least until some plague or another swept through the countryside and people decided they better baptize babies just to be safe. Of course, to an extent people were right: none of us is worthy which is why we say aloud just before Communion, “Lord, I am not worthy, but only say the word.” We trust that God hears us and answers us so that we are made worthy for the reception of any of the seven sacraments. However, back to the anointing. People really thought that their sins made them somehow untouchable by the love of God and that extended right down to the last moments of life. In actuality, the Anointing can be found in a couple of scriptures, notably the gospel of Mark and the Letter of James: If there be any sick among you, bring them to the elders of the Church so that they may lay hands on them. Note that the operating term here is sick, not dying. There’s no suggestion that anyone in the community is not capable of receiving this sacrament. However, over the last several hundred years people came to think of anointing as a last minute blessing intended to get us through death and into the Kingdom. This may be because the sacrament is considered one which imparts the forgiveness of God for our sins, one of the two penitential sacraments. All of that unworthiness business changed during the Second Vatican Council when the bishops began to teach in a much more open way that the sacraments are meant to be celebrated, not delayed. Anointing of the Sick is, therefore, a celebration of God’s love and of his healing power. It’s intended for any serious sickness of the body, mind and soul and seeks the “recovery of health if it would be conducive to salvation” [Catechism, 1512]. That means that when someone celebrates the sacrament, the work of God being accomplished may not be easily visible and may not directly affect the specific illness which led us to the anointing; rather God provides an immediate help toward our salvation, because none of us should avoid help to our salvation, the use of Anointing has greatly increased.

Mary Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

HELP! On Sunday, Dec. 23rd, we will be decorating for Christmas here in church! There are many small things, and some big, that need to be done to make our church the beautiful place we love to share with our families over the holidays! Can you help? One of the bigger...really bigger...challenges, is the large tree we like to place in the sanctuary! Is there someone who's not afraid of climbing high?
Someone who has patience to play with those Christmas lights? See Mary Jo or call Barb in the parish office if you can lend a hand! (lots of other smaller things to do to, so don't be bashful!)

THANK YOU!

The Giving Tree

Many thanks to all who took tags off of our Giving Tree! All were adopted, and more were requested! You are most generous! If you did not bring your gift back this weekend, (due date) contact Maria at Outreach to make arrangements so no family is left out! Please bring your tag back with the gift so Maria knows who the gifts go to. Thank You!

Also, contact Maria if you know of a family that may need food for Christmas dinner. The Outreach group may be able to work their magic so no family is without!

Thank You for all you do for the Outreach.
You are very much appreciated.
Outreach is not accepting any clothing for the next couple of weeks do to a storage issue.

It was good to see all who were able to attend Homecoming! Many “old” faces, and many current parish families were able to attend! Thanks to all who brought goodies to share! If you left a plate or dish, and would like it back, it will be in the hospitality area on the table!

Legacy Campaign

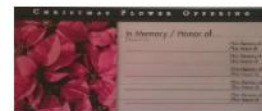

Take a look at the fabulous posters engineered by Cathy Carroll, and executed by Joe Pinciotti, to show our parish past, present and future! The future of our parish depends upon all of us, and our Legacy families...those who have gone before and still care! More information to follow after the first of the year! Thanks, Cathy, for taking on leadership of this endeavor!

Envelope Boxes are available for pick up this weekend, Saturday, December 15 and Sunday, December 16. Don't forget to get yours. They will be back in the vestibule on the table. If you do not see one call the parish office @419-243-1829

Calendars are also available this weekend. Please only take one per family so everyone has a chance to get one. If there are any left then you may take another. Thank you .

Please have your Christmas Flower envelopes in by this Sunday December 16 if you want your loved one on the Memory/ Honor list.
If you forgot it just call Barb in the parish office Mon.– Fri. 9am-2pm.

Thanks
