ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Mentioning changes in the funeral rite inspired a question about planning ahead. Many people pre-plan a funeral through their preferred provider (I've got everything ready for my funeral through the mortuary in Swanton where I grew up, where some high school classmates owned the place now owned by their son, and where I'll be buried). It's a great way to spare children, parents or other relatives the burden of doing all the planning when grieving seems the more necessary obligation. Most funeral homes are well qualified to assist in the grieving process and have been given ample guidance from the diocese on doing so in a way that characterizes the deceased as a member of the household of God. While most directors and their staffs are also competent to help plan the actual funeral, they will more often than not defer to the parish where the rituals will take place so that local customs and requirements of time and space can be explained and applied. As part of pre-planning, it's often thought a good idea to put together the funeral ritual itself, choosing readings and songs, setting down names of potential lectors, distributors, pall bearers and the like. Some of this tends to be fairly easy – readings from the Old Testament, New Testament and Gospels are laid out in the ritual book itself (which can be found on-line from a number of sources and most Catholic funeral homes will have them ready to hand out as would any parish). Choosing songs should reflect the place in the liturgy where any particular song would be sung so that the words enhance the experience at that point in the Mass. This is sometimes difficult in choosing music for the offertory (we're giving gifts to God) and Communion (we're getting the ultimate gift from God); however, the hymnal nicely identifies appropriate music for these two places in the liturgy. People like to pick songs they liked in this life which may or may not be what their family, friends or others would like. It's always a good idea to choose a selection and then let the family do the final choice so what they hear is a message of hope and of God's love appropriate for them. Because many children have fallen away from regular attendance at Mass, choosing familiar hymns from the more traditional area will be far more comforting than would some of the newer songs they may not recognize. Finally, pre-planning the funeral is often done without pre-planning for what will happen to all of our property when we die. I'm speaking of the Last Will and Testament we ought to have written and placed in a secure, easy-to-get-to place so that our wishes for the proper distribution of our assets can be done without a lot of second guessing by an administrator appointed by the courts. I'm sure all of us have in mind what should be done with our property and monies; it's a good idea to talk this over with the family when we do write a will so no one will be surprised. If arguing and fighting ensue, it will have taken place before we die so we can attend to any reconciliation that may have to be done; any distribution of an estate can leave a lot of raw wounds in those who expected to be treated more royally than perhaps we felt they should be. Planning ahead really does make things much easier for those who have to deal with our dying, but we should always exercise good sense and thoughtfulness in planning things the way we are.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Blessing of Throats

Throats will be blessed this weekend remembering St. Blaise for whom this tradition began. If you haven't heard the story of this saint, google it and be informed!

Congratulations to Gilberto DeLuna and his family as he joins the parish family of Immaculate Conception Parish! Gilberto was baptized and received his First Communion here at IC last Sunday!

Welcome
DeLuna Family

We are so happy to have a plowing/snow clearing company in place to make sure our entryways are accessible in this lovely winter wonderland! Let Msgr. Chris know how grateful we are, and if you are able, maybe increase your donation by $1.00 to defray the cost of plowing!

Tickets for Reverse Raffle are out and awaiting your response! If you are unable to attend, let Doug Grey know as there may be people on a waiting list!

Please notice the RSVP date and let Doug Grey know if you do not want your ticket this year, or if you know of someone to place on the waiting list, as all tickets (200) are currently spoken for!

Still looking for GREAT items for silent auction at reverse raffle, or some items to fill in the baskets for the side raffles! Also looking for bottles of wine for our wine pull! All donations we get help to increase the profit for our parish!

Know someone with a business or craft they pursue? Would they like to purchase one of the ads in our Raffle program? Ads start at $25.00 for business card size to $100 for a full page ad! Where else could you get more for your money?!

If you would also like to spotlight your family as a "heritage" family from Immaculate Conception, ads with the family photo and a few words of support are also available for the same price as business ads!

Begging again! Donations for Reverse Raffle are again requested: bottles of wine to be raffled, gift certificates, maybe some items that would be good for the side raffles? (Holiday gifts you're not sure what to do with?!) Check with Louann Meagher, Cathy Carroll, or Barb Marquis (Joe) if you have something to donate! (and, as always, thank you for your support!)

The contacts are :

Fundraising: Louann Meagher and Barb Marquis

Outreach: Maria Ochoa

Liturgy and Christian Formation: MJ Pilcher, Janet Hickey, Judy Place

Children's Liturgy of the Word:

Cathy Carroll, Judy Westmeyer, Marcia Kardos, Sierra Parra

Veteran's Ministry: Linda Garcia

If you have any questions regarding these ministries please talk to a parish council member in charge of that particular committee.

Stations of the Cross

We would like to try to reenact the stations of the cross one time during this Lent, with our young adults—junior high through high school taking the roles. Of course, this depends on whether or not we could get 12 or so young people to participate! If you are interested, please let Mary Jo Pilcher know at church at one of the weekend masses, or call the parish office. We'll see what happens!

Snow Emergency

Whenever a county/city within the Diocese of Toledo is placed under a Level 3 Snow Emergency during which all roadways are closed to non-emergency personnel, the Catholic Churches within that geographic region will cancel the scheduled Saturday Vigil, Sunday, or Holy Day Masses. Roman Catholics in that region, therefore, are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass. If Masses are cancelled, Catholics are encouraged to participate in Holy Mass via television, radio or internet, making a spiritual Communion. When Mass is cancelled, all other diocesan, parish, or school events in the geographic area are also cancelled.

Parish Directories

In answer to the questions about the new parish directory: we had a slight delay in submitting it, but it should be available soon. Corrections are being made. They will be shipped to the parish, and anyone who submitted or had a picture taken will get one. There should be some extras for those parishioners who would like a copy, even though no picture was submitted for the directory! We'll keep you posted!

Diocese of Toledo Prayer for Vocations

Almighty God, make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same. Inspire men and women to respond generously to your call to service and leadership in your church as priests, consecrated religious and deacons. Amen
