ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear people of God,

I want to address the third of five statements I was given for review. This one is from Pope Eugene IV (around 1440 and the council of Florence): The most holy Roman Catholic Church firmly believes, professes, and preaches that none of those existing outside the Catholic Church. . . can have eternal life. Again, context is everything and the quote here is taken out of the general context of the papal bull (letter) which was specially addressed to resolve a specific issue in Eugene's goals: the reunification of the Catholic and Orthodox Churches. It is of limited application to the universal Church beyond the attempt to bring about reunification. If you look this up in any of the original Latin copies you'd discover that the Holy Roman Catholic Church is specified as being a church founded by Jesus Christ and the catholic church is the universal church professed in the Nicene creed with a lower case "c." I prefer to reference a collection called Denzinger because it includes the primary works in the original languages not in a translation somebody made or had made to fit their own purposes. The underlying goal of the bull makes a huge difference in how the quote should be understood. First, Eugene reminds the reader that the Catholic Church we belong to teaches. Indeed, it does and it has a lot to say about salvation, faith and being summoned to the Roman Catholic ecclesial community. But what it's teaching here is what it's taught all along: that God has established his own universal church and outside that there can be no salvation. How God draws anyone into that universal church is always God's doing. It's more often than not explained by saying that faith is not something we can develop on our own, but requires a gift of that faith from God. In other words, God wills the salvation of sinners; we don't will our own salvation. We may be smart enough once we have the gift of faith to want to be saved and do all in our power to make sure we are saved, but the initial step is always and ever the one God takes. That's a key element in religious teaching: we cannot save ourselves. From St. Paul and other early church writers, we believe that Jesus' death on the cross was the "first step" taken by God to give the gift of faith. It was present by the miracle of God's love when God created Adam and Eve, it was there by that same miracle of love when God called Abraham, and it was there by virtue of God's love when Moses led the faithful out of Egypt. It was there when mom and dad, filled with the faith God invited them to share, brought you and me to the waters of baptism and will be there when each of us makes that final decision to accept it or reject it at the final judgment.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

The school kids from Queen of Apostles, under the direction of Sr. Mary Frances, have led the stations for the last two Fridays, and done a great job! Thanks to them for sharing in this special Lenten devotion. Their next turn will be on April 12th!

Make sure you have kept a copy of the Holy Week devotion times here at Darby. This is a week of great importance before we come together to celebrate the Easter feast.

Remember, there is NO Saturday mass on Saturday, April 20th, but the meaningful Vigil will be celebrated at Historic St. Patrick's that evening. Check the bulletin to be sure of the time!

Prayer For Our Parish

For Our Parish Heavenly Father, You have chosen the parish as the place by which you encounter us in our daily lives.

Here Your Word is proclaimed, the Eucharist is celebrated and your people are united to a family of believers. We thank you for the abundant blessings You have given to our parish, and pray that we may continue to serve You in faithfulness and love.

Keep us open to our need of Your love and fellowship. Help us to work together to serve You and each other for the good of the Church, for the people of our Parish and for Your greater glory.

Amen

Outreach is wondering if we might donate candies, eggs, and baskets to fill for the clients that will be visiting the pantry the week of Easter.! We will put out the green plastic basket to receive your donations ... and thank you!

We would also like to have the parish egg hunt for the little ones on Easter Sunday. Could you donate a dozen plastic eggs filled with candy? We will collect those in a cardboard box in the hospitality area. You can still BUY candy during Lent... you just won't EAT it!

As the weather is getting nicer..(yaay!) we will be looking for people to help get our borders in order. Some of the bulbs are poking through, but probably in April, we might need to bring color to the flower beds.

Also, flower envelopes for Easter flowers are in the pews. If you would like to donate to our flowers that beautify the altar, please do, and add the name of the loved one you are remembering. After Easter, when they have faded, you may take them home to plant in your garden!
