ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

"I will follow
you wherever you go."

Luke 9:57

Dear People of God,

It is right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord God, Almighty Father.

You'll no doubt recognize (I hope) today's introductory phrase. It's the introduction to the many prefaces for the Eucharist Prayers we use at Mass. I've used the bold after reading the comics and perusing the latest morality tale going on in Mary Worth. Today's introduction is a reminder that the first order of business among Christians is a spirit of gratitude. This is so vital an aspect of being a Christian that the title given to our principal celebration is derived from the same root word, a Greek term Eucharistia, the Eucharist. Just as our Mass is a prayer-filled thanksgiving to God for the many gifts poured out into our lives (life itself, good health – at least for the younger crowd – a job, house, talent to do some worthwhile work, a voice to sing out our praise of God or just entertain the neighbors while showering), so, too, should our behavior, whether alone or among others, reflect a spirit of continual thanksgiving. Unfortunately, we now live in a culture which has little place for genuine gratitude, so we often encounter those who find fault with everything, blame everyone for whatever it is that person is unhappy about, and who wag their fingers in accusation when others fall short of that person's personal expectations. Such behaviors have no place in our lives, let alone in our worship space, if we claim to be Christian. In fact, if you skim through the Sermon on the Mount, in chapters 5-7, you'll find Jesus' commentary on the Big Ten and much of what he has to say reflects this same spirit of gratitude; gratitude for our lives, our families, our friends, our neighbors, our fellow worshippers. A gratitude which leads to forbearance, understanding, tolerance, forgiveness and peace. A spirit of gratitude is behind that famous section of 1 Corinthians where St. Paul is commenting on the three Cardinal virtues: Faith, Hope and Love. Faith opens our eyes to the goodness of God for which we give thanks, hope opens our hearts to the future so that we do our best to assist others in getting into Heaven, and love which undergirds all our actions in sacrificial service of others. In essence, then, gratitude is a way of life, a blueprint for how we ought to conduct ourselves every hour of every day. It means being thankful for what we have instead of resentful and angry over what we don't have. Yes, it means putting up with the shenanigans of those who lack a spirit of gratitude but we'll never bring about the conversion of the ingrate (a word derived from the same source as gratitude) if we don't practice gratitude ourselves. Perhaps what we need is a new campaign featuring one of those wrist band except instead of WWJD it's boldly proclaim WDWJD: We Do What Jesus Does. Jesus always and everywhere gave thanks to his Father and so should we.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Prayer For Our Parish

For Our Parish Heavenly Father, You have chosen the parish as the place by which you encounter us in our daily lives.

Here Your Word is proclaimed, the Eucharist is celebrated, and your people are united to a family of believers. We thank you for the abundant blessings You have given to our parish, and pray that we may continue to serve You in faithfulness and love.

Keep us open to our need of Your love and fellowship. Help us to work together to serve You and each other for the good of the Church, for the people of our Parish and for Your greater glory.

Amen

A Letter from Bishop Daniel E. Thomas

Prayerful greetings in the Lord! Please accept my deep thanks for your warm welcome during my recent visit when I was blessed to be celebrant and homilist for the Queen of Apostles Graduation Mass on Thursday, May 30, 2019. It was good to be with the students, school families and parishioners.

What a blessing to spend time with members of Immaculate Conception Parish and Queen of Apostles School, to pray and offer Holy Mass together with the graduation ceremony. Please extend my sincere thanks to all those who assisted in the Mass and light reception. Your welcome and their prayerful example are a source of encouragement. Thank you for providing me with a copy of the “Queen of Apostles School 2019 Year Book”, and please extend a special thank you to the graduates for their kind personal letters.

With a promise of continued prayers for you and your intentions, and for the entire Queen of Apostles School and Immaculate Conception Parish Communities, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas
