Dear People of God,

I mentioned last week that it's sometimes best to hold off for a while before officially commenting on extreme acts of violence. I thought today I'd upset a few more people by weighing in on the causes of such acts. There's a big debate over whether violent video games play a role. The people who make a huge profit from them say they're as innocent as the driven snow and actually divert young peoples' anger from other people to the images on the TV screen. I didn't entirely waste the bishop's money while studying for my doctorate so I spent a lot of time in the classroom and labs of the Faculty of Psychology at the University of Ottawa. One of the most important things I learned from that is the theory of attachment developed by a host of well-known and highly respected research psychologists. The theory suggests that in the first few minutes after birth (a traumatic experience not unlike being dropped from a second story window, by the way), an infant whom we've always considered a blank canvas is no such thing but is highly reactive to its environment and how it is accepted by the important people around it. One's deepest relational valence is established in those first five to eight minutes when the infant senses far better than we ever thought whether it is warmly, sort-of, or not welcomed (positive, ambivalent or negative attachment). There has been an emotional and physical relationship already formed to the mother who carried the child so the attachment to the mother following birth is extremely important for orderly, wholesome development of the child into adulthood. A positive attachment yields a happy-go-lucky child who can roll with the punches and face difficulty with a confident attitude. On the other hand, the ambivalent and negatively attached child needs a lot of external affirmation through childhood and adolescence (what a good family and friendships normally provide so most children grow up ok). Where the affirmation is lacking, or perceived (because the family may well be pillars of virtue in every sense) to be non-existent, the child grows up with what is sometimes referred to as "an attitude." These are the adolescents and young adults who are more often than not filled with unrequited anger, resentment, self-hatred, and other serious issues which are the triggers just waiting to be tripped to rouse the person to acts of real violence. The solution to their dilemma is easy to see: wholesome family life in which respect, love, and compassion are the norm, not the exception. That should help answer the question about video games that feature mass killings, big explosions, and worse. So in the end, thanks to all who have assisted with the ACA (Annual Catholic Appeal) this year: a very large part of your donation has gone to fund the Family Life Office.

Mess. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

For Our Parish Heavenly Father, You have chosen the parish as the place by which you encounter us in our daily lives.

Here Your Word is proclaimed, the Eucharist is celebrated, and your people are united to a family of believers. We thank you for the abundant blessings You have given to our parish, and pray that we may continue to serve You in faithfulness and love.

Keep us open to our need of Your love and fellowship. Help us to work together to serve You and each other for the good of the Church, for the people of our Parish and for Your greater glory.

Next week, representatives from the Land of Peace mission, a nonprofit organization, will be with us selling crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries, all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to build a Charitable Hospital in Bethlehem and help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have "something" authentic from the holy land. Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion.
