Dear People of God,

I began a discussion of acts of violence the other week and want to pick up on that today as well. If you pay close attention to the people who undertake acts of violence, you'll often discover that they are hoping to be part of the death toll. Often they know that they're walking into a situation from which they cannot hope to escape. We often hear or read that they do what they do to be the center of attention and that may well be since these are people who have generally had (or think they've had) very little loving attention paid them over the span of their lives. Teachers will reminisce that they had very low self-esteem, had few friends (because low self-esteem means it's really hard to make friends – the person is actually afraid to try because the lack of esteem makes them feel like losers) and hung with the crowd of outsiders and outcasts. The shooter, for instance, in the El Paso incident admitted he went in wanting to be killed. He didn't like himself and could think of no better way to put an end to his own situation than inviting the police to come in and take him out in a body bag. This phenomenon has become so popular it's now called "suicide by cop." It's happened right here in our own community. We can certainly analyze the perpetrator who doesn't succeed in getting himself killed and no doubt find all kinds of presenting psychological disorders. But we need to keep in mind that while some disorders seem to be genetic in origin, others are not and have a source. In either case, if we pay close attention to children and young adults, an appropriate early intervention can occur that teaches the child/adolescent/adult how to control and handle the disorder in a way that enhances social skills, builds healthy relationships, and otherwise acts as a preventative for acts of violence. I would hazard to guess that the answer is once again a wholesome family life where the child is appreciated, loved, supported, and guided by loving parents. Tragically, our culture has in many ways wreaked havoc on wholesome family life but there are other ways to provide the appreciation, support, and love. Boys and Girls Clubs, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, organizing a little league team recruited from the projects (with the goal of getting to the World Series in five years or less to make it interesting), putting together a program for neighborhood kids to get out on the golf course (I don't recommend bowling. When I was the Youth Program Director in Swanton, I organized a bowling outing at Imperial Lanes and around 2:00 a.m. (the hours from midnight to six a.m. were "all you can bowl" for five bucks) one of the participants was almost asleep and rolled a ball down into the pin setter so we were all thrown out). As committed Christians, there's plenty we can do to prevent acts of violence. Give it some thought.

Meg. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

We, as a parish family, would like to express our deepest sympathy to the family of Sonny Wilson who passed away last Saturday. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family as they go through this tough time. We pray for Sonny as he enters into eternal life with our loving and merciful God.

All Saints Day Mass is Friday, November 1 at 9:00 am. The school kids will not be at this mass, so please come and observe this Holy Day of obligation with us.

Saturday, November 2 will be the date that those who have lost a family member in the past year will be welcomed to a mass celebrating those members. We will distribute the Fleur de lis at that time, so if you lost a family member in this past year, please attend the 4PM mass to receive your plaque.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

November will be a month of remembrance for those of our families that have passed away. We will again have the book of remembrance and a container in which there will be charcoal coals for you to sprinkle incense. As the incense rises, we remember that Our God hears all our prayers and cares for those he has called to him!

Remember, our "Roving Reporter" may be interviewing you in the next week or so! Be candid and honest about your ties to Darby. It could be good viewing for a stranger who's thinking about visiting us.

Prayer For Our Parish

For Our Parish Heavenly Father, You have chosen the parish as the place by which you encounter us in our daily lives.

Here Your Word is proclaimed, the Eucharist is celebrated, and your people are united to a family of believers. We thank you for the abundant blessings You have given to our parish, and pray that we may continue to serve You in faithfulness and love.

Keep us open to our need of Your love and fellowship. Help us to work together to serve You and each other for the good of the Church, for the people of our Parish and for Your greater glory.

Amen

OUTREACH	LAST WEEK	YTD
Families served	51	741

Outreach is now accepting winter clothing only.

This weekend representatives from the Land of Peace mission, a nonprofit organization, are with us selling crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries, all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to build a Charitable Hospital in Bethlehem and help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have “something” authentic from the holy land. Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion.
