ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

As we continue to follow the summons of our spiritual Father Pope Francis to pay special attention to The Word, I've been looking at some of the key issues raised in just one book of the Old Testament: Genesis.

Today I would like to focus on an interesting topic that repeatedly occurs in the Book: Marriage. In fact, if you pay attention to the thematic notions layered into the stories collected in Genesis, you'll discover over 100 references to what marriage should be and what it shouldn't be. At the very beginning of the Book, as a central revelation of both of the creation texts, God lays out marriage as one man and one woman cooperating in the (a) stewardship of all creation and (b) the perpetuation of what God instituted in the initial creation Adam and Eve. The very words of Adam in Creation Two (the much older version) tell us a lot about marriage: "This at last is flesh of my flesh and bone of my bone." No wonder then that God says as a genuine marriage bond "What God has joined, no-one (not the partner, not the neighbor, not the courts, not the priest) may separate.

From the words of Adam (it's actually a song, the second one we find in Genesis; the first is God singing the creation of humankind in Creation One), we discover that a genuine marriage is the completion of the self in the person of the beloved: what is missing in the self is filled up with the spouse and the two do, in fact, become one, the one both were intended to be from the moment God said "Let there be light." All the remaining references, in one way or another, highlight the mistakes people make in seeking and finding the one person who God put out there to be the perfect spouse. You may want to search Formed to look into the role of marriage in Genesis. You may also want to look at my comment on "Marriage in Genesis" which should be available in the St. Patrick's library. It's pretty technical but includes a chart on the more important references to marriage in the Appendices so you can look them up and enjoy a good read.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Your generous giving is now more important than ever. As we are no longer able to gather and offer our gifts at Mass, we will need to rely on donations to continue to support our parish during this time. If you are able, we are asking that you prayerfully consider making an online donation in place of the usual collection taken up at Mass. Your gift will help cover the costs of salaries, payroll taxes and benefits, utilities, and maintenance for parish operations. To donate, please go to our parish website: iccatdarby.org Please note that even though it says legacy initiative, there is a comment box where you can designate your contribution as an offertory collection. You can also continue to mail checks to the parish office.

As we wait, maybe not SO patiently, to hear of our return to church, continue to pray for all who are suffering from this pandemic all over the world! We join in praying the rosary daily for the intercession of Our Blessed Mother.

The details for Graduation, Confirmation, and First Communion are still being worked out. Due to the very limited number of people that would most likely be allowed, and the safe spacing required, this is taking some thought. Pray for the planners, also!

 * Happy Mothers' Day to all of our moms *
 * and caregivers who help moms! We * * may not hand out our tiny corsages this * * year, but we will be passing out a * * flower for you if you pass by the *
 * Maumee Ave. door on Sunday, between *
 * 11AM and 12noon. Please know how *
 * very special you are, not just to your *
 * families, but to your family here at *
 * Immaculate Conception as well. Stay *
 * safe! *

Need-based Scholarships Awarded for Students to Attend a Private School

The Northwest Ohio Scholarship Fund has announced that they have awarded a total of 620 scholarships including 108 new scholarships for the 2019-2020 school year. The eligibility scale for these scholarships is based on the National School Lunch Program and all of the families receiving the scholarship are at the 270% poverty level or below.

The Northwest Ohio Scholarship Fund (NOSF) provides privately funded scholarships to students from low-income families in grades K-8 to attend a private school or for homeschool expenses.

Interested families can find more information about the program and apply online on the NOSF website at www.nosf.org. Once awarded, families can renew their children's scholarship each year if they meet the income eligibility requirements and can also add siblings. For more information please contact Ann Riddle, Executive Director of the Northwest Ohio Scholarship Fund at (419) 720-7048.

LIVESTREAM MASS UPDATE

The hope was for Mass livestreaming to alternate weeks between HSP and Immaculate Conception. Unfortunately, livestreaming has not been successful at IC, and now we are focusing on livestreaming Mass exclusively from HSP.

We have discovered in our livestreaming journey that the most popular time to stream Mass is at 10 a.m. on Sunday. With so many Catholics and Protestants online streaming and viewing, it means the video quality for viewers isn't very good and it is also difficult to successfully livestream from the church.

To solve this issue, we now livestream Sunday Mass at 9 a.m. so that the recorded video is available at 10 a.m. Playing a previously recorded video at 10 a.m. does not have glitches for viewers. Wednesday evening does not have a problem with internet traffic, so Mass will now be at our usual time of 5:30. Once livestreaming of Mass is complete, the videos remain on our Facebook page for viewing at any time.

Sunday Mass – livestream at 9 a.m./video available at 10 a.m.
 Wednesday Mass – livestream at 5:30 p.m./video available at 6 p.m.

Loving Father, you alone are the source of every good gift. We praise you for all your gifts to us, and we thank you for your generosity.

Everything we have, and all that we are, comes from you. Help us to be grateful and responsible.

You have called us to follow your son, Jesus, without counting the cost. Send us your Holy Spirit to give us courage and wisdom to be faithful disciples.

We commit ourselves to being good stewards. Help us to be grateful, accountable, generous, and willing to give back with increase. Help us to make stewardship a way of life.

We make this prayer through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

AMEN

Diocesan Website Updated

The Diocese of Toledo has added seven new names to the Clergy Status Report page on the Diocesan website (www.toledodiocese.org), now to include those clerics against whom an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor, now substantiated, was first reported after the cleric’s death. Because these clerics were already deceased and no longer posed a threat, no canonical process was required or undertaken, and their names had not been included on the website.

When the Clergy Status Report, first published in 2004, was updated in 2019, it indicated that “the documentation of these cases will now be presented to the Review Board, that will make a recommendation, based on the available evidence, as to whether these clerics’ names should be added to the Clergy Status Report.” That process has now been completed. As a result, please consult the new section on the Clergy Status Report; “Clergy Who Were Deceased Prior to an Allegation.”

Any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, staff member or volunteer affiliated with the Diocese of Toledo should first be reported to local law enforcement where the abuse is alleged to have occurred. Please also report any such allegation to the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at 419-214-4880.

Diocese of Toledo Prayer for Vocations

Almighty God, make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same. Inspire men and women to respond generously to your call to service and leadership in your church as priests, consecrated religious and deacons. Amen
