Pentecost

Dear People of God,

As we continue our celebrations/ explanations of The Word, I would like to continue to point out some of the lesser known facts in the Book of Genesis. As I observed earlier, the stories of the people who would eventually compose the written Word first told the stories to give “the younger generation” some practical advice while introducing them to the social construct of a tribal economy.

One of the major thematic issues of the Book of Genesis is to explain how and when the twelve tribes coalesced from the one tribe founded by Abram as he sought to do God’s will. Note that the typical dynamic of growth is represented throughout Genesis: (a) Cain’s descendants form a new tribe after the death of Abel; (b) Ishmael, Abram’s son by Hager, founds a “great nation” after being excluded by Sara; (c) Lot, Abram’s nephew, founds the first city-based tribal unit, thus starting a theme of city vs. country which runs all through the Old Testament; (d) Esau establishes a tribe distinct from that of his fraternal twin Jacob; (e) returning from Egypt, Jacob’s children establish the well-known twelve tribes; there are actually thirteen because Joseph has no tribe of his own but his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim each get a tribal designation.

Tribes exist to survive so Genesis is replete with advice on how to survive: the key principle was being faithful to the God who provided protection for the tribe. The stories are also written in a way that puts the listener in the action: the story is not just a pleasant recollection but an immersion in the events that created and sustained the tribe.

We might think that all this tribal stuff is just that- “stuff.” However, if you pay attention to the human condition in any age, including ours, you will see a lot of tribal dynamics on display. The Hebrews had a distinct mark of membership: circumcision. Browns fans have distinctive orange and brown markings to indicate belonging and when their team wins, “we” win, not “them.” Political parties make use of tribal dynamics which is why Democrats and Republicans (who identify themselves with donkeys and elephants) tend to disagree so vociferously. There are distinct regional differences, and these often reflect tribal dynamics. Reading Genesis (or listening to a good audio commentary in Formed) might inspire insight into our own “tribes” and also help us to better understand the decisions we make on a daily basis, especially as they relate to our own tribal affiliations.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Thank you to everyone who continued to donate while we worshipped from home. Now that we are back in the pews, the offertory will look a bit different. We will not be passing the basket. There will be a basket in front of the altar. When you process up for communion, you may place your envelope in the basket then. If you are not yet joining us for Mass, you can still donate online or mail in your contribution.

All of the contribution totals will be updated in next week's bulletin.

THANK YOU!!

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

LECTIO: MARY
The Queen Mother

In the Old Testament, throughout the line of Davidic kings, the queen was not the wife of the king, but rather the king's mother. Jesus rules as king of heaven and earth with his mother, Mary, as the queen mother.

We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.

We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decisionmakers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.

Grant peace.
