Dear People of God,

It seems as if we hardly get a hold of one serious issue when another pops up to take its place: covid, lockdowns, empty churches, protests and this past weekend, the tragic loss of one of our police officers to senseless violence. The loss of Officer Anthony Dia is a family tragedy, a sad loss that touches the hearts of every one of us. Despite his being of another faith tradition, the prayers we offer here are no less sincere that the Divine he worshipped might take him into Paradise to live forever. Our prayers go out to his wife and children and to all those in TPD who worked beside and with him. He will remain in our memory and prayer.

While our voices rise in prayer for Officer Dia, our fervent prayers also are extended to the alleged shooter's family now experiencing a tragedy of quite another sort. It must be extremely difficult to deal with what a family member has done, but in our contemporary culture we all too often extend blame to the innocent family which had nothing to do with an act of great violence. What we should be doing is showing our support to those affected by relationship or affinity to the alleged shooter, showing them the loving face of a God whose care and compassion are not restricted merely to saints.

We must also besiege heaven on behalf of the many who have come to embrace violence as a way of life, as a means of obtaining their ends, whatever they may be. Destruction, assault, maiming and even killing others to "make a point" only makes a really sad point: we have no respect for ourselves and others. I am deeply saddened by the wave of destructive protest currently gripping parts of our great nation. We seem to have lost sight of a truth that underlies all of Christianity and has been enshrined in the Pledge of Allegiance: we are one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Our founders had only to turn to the Sacred Scriptures to find that writ from beginning to end: all of us are created in the image and likeness of God. How can there be hatred given that truth? How can there be racism or any other treatment except that of equals?

The very word catholic means universal. We speak out (boldly I hope) each Sunday that we believe in one, holy, catholic and Apostolic church. The universality of the Church is multi-faceted. It references the diverse multitude of peoples in all six continents who are one with us in the sacramental union brought about by Jesus Christ, but it also references all men and women of every age and ages yet to come who are God's children. Some may be saints, some may be sinners. Some may look or talk like us, others may look or speak differently. Catholic embraces them all in the warm love of their creator God. Let that be the Good News you share this week.

Megs. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

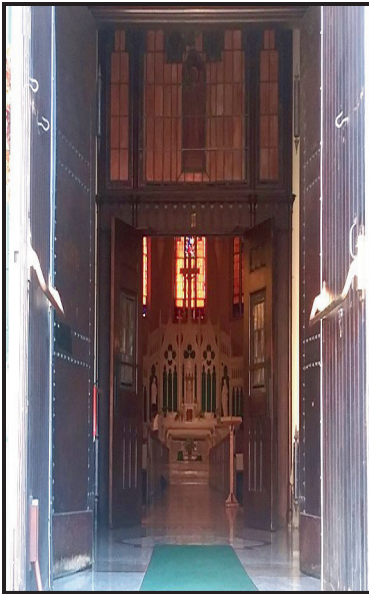

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Pope's Monthly Prayer Intentions

Our Families

We pray that today's families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance.

FLOC Youth Employment Readiness and Empowerment Program is a 12-week long paid internship that works with local youth aged 14-24 living in poverty or on the margins. The goal of the program is to teach key life skills that will be useful in careers and community organizing while pairing up participants with internships to implement what is learned during class. Participants make roughly $10 an hour.

Classes are held at the FLOC office Monday through Friday, 4:00-6:00 P.M. Participants are required to:

- 1) Be TANF eligible.
- 2) Be a Lucas County resident.
- 3) Have a minor in the home. (The applicant can be said minor.)
- 4) Have reliable transportation to and from class and work.
- 5) Show up to every class.

We have a new class starting up on Monday, July 13th. Applications can be found at www.floc.com

There are brochures with more detailed information on the tables and in the church office.
