Dear People of God,

I was struck the other day reading Paul's letter to the Corinthians that the Church hasn't matured very much over the last 2000 years. Of course, given that it's a church for eternity, it's still in its infancy so that's to be expected; however, what hit me was the introduction where Paul rails against the factions that have developed in the local church, part favoring Paul and another Apollos. Elsewhere he'll add those who follow Cephas (Peter). Those are the leaders of the community or communities which are coalescing in Corinth. Paul wonders why the people are looking to mere humans instead of looking to God for leadership/guidance/perfection. It's not a new trend; you can see the same thing happening in the Old Testament over and over: recall the moment Cain and Abel begin to divide the human family, note Isaac and Ishmael both claiming the better connection to Abraham and the Covenant, and then remember the Pharisees and Sadducees arguing over who best represented God's Church in the Israel of Jesus' time. We see this same phenomenon today when the parish priest is moved on and some people follow him to another parish rather than continue to find God in the one they were.

This same kind of division occurs when some want to stick with the "tried and the true" Latin Mass and others do their best to incorporate their worship in the Vatican II liturgy celebrated in the vernacular. It goes right to the top. There are those who accept Francis as Holy Father and others who follow along with those who insist that there is no real pope because Vatican II messed up everything. Jesus, or as Paul reminds the Corinthians, the Christ is supposed to be the image held before our eyes regardless of anything or anyone else. Jesus is the model and goal of our Christian pilgrimage. Jesus is the very real presence within that transforms us and makes us very real partakers in the divinity. Yet we have time and energy to squabble over mere humans and their modeling or whatever flaws we cite or differences we imagine. Our time and energy ought to be focused on, again as Paul says, the deeds which we do to make known the wonder of God. Our modeling of the partnership we share with Jesus should be made evident to others by the way we speak and act. Our following the Christ should be focused on celebrating as best we can the rites, rituals, and sacraments which bring about the connection between us and the God we worship.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

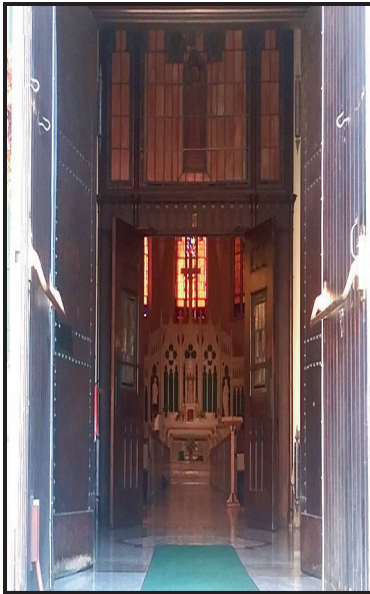

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

ACA UPDATE Our Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) drive began at the beginning of Lent. All of us have been overwhelmed by other issues since then. However, people have continued to send in their pledges.

Here is our report, as of September 25, 2020.

ACA Goal for IC	$6,500.00
Total Amount Pledged/Given	$5,443.75
Percent of our Target	83.75 %
Total Number of Givers	56

Together Let Us Pray

A reminder! Sacramental preparation for those NOT attending a Catholic grade school does require preparation here in your parish. Call the office if your child is between 2nd and 8th grade if you need more information.

Let's continue to keep in our prayers, those who have lost loved ones in the past few weeks. We remember, especially, the Marquis family in the loss of Barb Marquis, our former secretary. The loss of all of our loved ones is painful, but we know they have attained that final reward we are all hoping to receive.

LECTIO: PHILIPPIANS

Towards the end of his life, under arrest and awaiting trial in Rome, Saint Paul writes a short but powerful letter to the Philippians. In six sessions, Dr. Tim Gray combines insight and practical guidance using the lectio divina disciplines to make the Scriptures come alive in Philippians: Life in Christ.

OCEAN OF MERCY

At the dawn of the twentieth century, three voices rose up from Poland—St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and Pope St. John Paul II—to proclaim an urgent message, a message powerful enough to alter the course of an age plunging into spiritual darkness.

To set up your free account visit formed.org/signup and select our parish.

Theology on Tap is a series of lectures hosted to promote fellowship among the young adult community in the Diocese of Toledo. So, if you are ages 21-39, we invite you to join us at Patron Saint's Brewery (4730 W Bancroft St #8, Toledo, OH 43615) on Tuesday, October 6th from 7pm-9pm. Doors open at 6:30pm. Drinks will be served, but bring your own dinner! The speaker for the evening is John Trabbic of St. Patrick Heatherdowns. Join us for an evening of fellowship with those of the Greater Toledo Area!

"Re-Scheduled" Annual Celebration of Firefighters and Blue Mass at HSP

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Historic Church of Saint Patrick Blue Mass in May and the Firefighter's Mass in September had to be rescheduled. The two Masses have been combined for a celebration on Sunday, October 11 at 10:00 am. Members of the local police and fire departments are invited to attend the Mass, which will provide special honor to the men and women who died in 2020, including the untimely death of Toledo Police Officer Anthony Dia. All are welcome!

The Outreach Center is still looking for volunteers to help with food unloading from shipments, distributing to our patrons, and probably many other tasks. You will become "THE PERSON of the DAY" when you volunteer! What is lacking in $$$$ is more than made up with gratitude and prayers of thanksgiving.

Do you have a sense that God has blessed you? Do you have an appreciation of God's goodness?

Are you looking for something "more" – more guidance in prayer, more ways to share your faith with like-minded women and men, more inspiration to give back the goodness you have received?

Notre Dame Association is open to women and men of all cultures, from age eighteen and over.

You would become part of a community that is prayed for daily by the Sisters of Notre Dame throughout the world. You would participate in retreats and workshops.

They meet once a month, usually on Saturdays. The classes would begin after the Covid pandemic, hopefully in January. Before meeting, you will be connected to a Sister sponsor.

If interested, please email Sr. Frances Marie at francesmariepenwell@gmail.com

Support Our Retired Priests!
Please consider a donation to the Perpetuate The Gift appeal. Your gift directly assists our retired diocesan priests. After a priest retires, typically in his 70s, he is responsible for his personal expenses: medical, housing, car, clothing and food. All funds contributed between September 19, 2020 and December 31, 2020 assists our assessed parish contribution to the fund. Envelopes are available in the front and back of church for the Priests' Retirement Fund. Please find it in your hearts to give what you can for our faithful shepherds.

THANK YOU!

Diocese of Toledo Prayer for Vocations

Almighty God, make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same. Inspire men and women to respond generously to your call to service and leadership in your church as priests, consecrated religious and deacons. Amen
