

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Here I am, send me

The celebration of World Mission Day is aimed at supporting the missionary work carried out in my name by the Pontifical Mission Societies, in order to meet the spiritual and material needs of peoples and Churches throughout the world, for the salvation of all.

ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

"Do not be afraid."

"Don't be afraid of it."

Is there any difference between these sentiments? Essentially no. Each is short, to the point and simply put. Why are they commonly spoken (for ex., by Mom to comfort a child when some mysterious noise pops out of the dark, by the doctor an hour or two before surgery, and by many others for a range of reasons throughout our lives)? Why? Because fear has invaded the human condition.

I truly believe that fear is the bitter, rotten fruit of the tree of good and evil, its noxious bile coursing through our veins to disrupt and threaten our spiritual and physiological equilibrium. We can trace fear back in the sacred works of the Bible and discover that the brilliant author of Genesis makes a clear connection between fear and shame. Remember, when God comes looking for Adam post apple eating, he's hiding, afraid to be seen, ashamed of what he sees, not in God or the garden but in himself: "I saw that I was naked." So what? He was naked to God before he ate the apple, while he was enjoying the crisp, sweet, juicy taste of that fruit and after nothing remained but the core. God made Adam so God knew what he looked like from top to bottom (whether that bottom was out for public view or hidden behind a tightly grasped fig leaf) and as far as God was concerned, every bit of Adam was beautiful to behold. When seen beside Eve, the symmetry is so magnificent that it was powerful enough to replicate creation itself. So then, why the fear?

I believe it's because fear is the ultimate deadly reality which led a famous American to boldly state, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself."

Fear is deadly because it prevents our ears from hearing that single wrong note in the symphony of sound, the single note that would trigger an awakening to the correction needed to restore the perfect harmony. Fear blinds our eyes to the golden light of truth glimmering in the wealth of visible but often misleading or distracting reality. Fear blunts our taste to the missing spice in a favorite dish, the subtle but crucial lack that points us to the missing ingredient necessary to restore the perfect flavor blend. Fear negatively alters our experience of many of life's pleasures

The first of the quotes above is from the Bible. It is a command given by God himself; a little exploration on the FORMED platform will reveal that God commands us "not to be afraid." He does so about seventy times, underscoring two key ideas; (1) the difficulty we humans have encountered in our efforts to successfully banish this crippling emotion and (2) the absolute necessity of actually doing so, banishing fear from our lives because it doesn't belong there. There are some other words we hear at Church posted here by way of conclusion: "Heed the words of the Gospels."

What's the human behavior we ought to cultivate instead of caving in to fear? I'll be exploring that next weekend but until then, consider what fears touch you and how you try to conquer them. And never forget God's advice: Be not afraid.

Meg. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

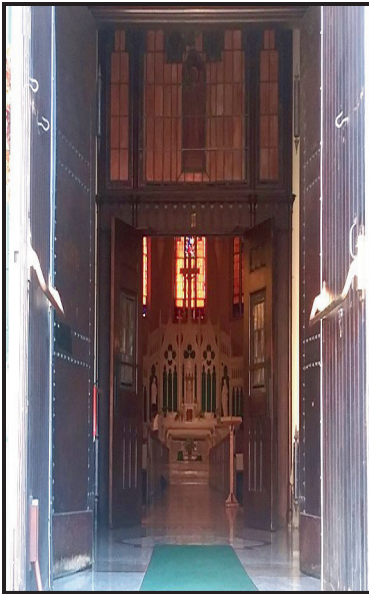

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

We as a parish family, would like to express our deepest sympathy to the families of Chuck Hindbaugh and Matt Buck for the loss of their loved ones. Our thoughts and prayers are with the families as they go through this tough time. We pray for Chuck and Matt as they enter into eternal life with our loving and merciful God.

Thanks to all who were able to celebrate with our First Communicants this past Sunday! May they continue to come to the banquet prepared for us by Our Lord, Jesus. Keep them in your prayers!

Outreach hopes to prepare Halloween treat bags to be given to our neighbors who come for food on Wednesday, Oct. 28th. If you are able to bring bagged candy or little treat bags already filled, it would be wonderful! Next Sunday would be the day, Oct. 25th, unless you are able to leave them at the church office before then. So much has been changed...little spots of fun are always welcome!

All Saints Mass
Sunday, November 1 11:00 am

Remembering the lives of those who have entered eternity during the past year.

This will be the date that those who have lost a family member in the past year will be welcomed to a mass celebrating those members. We will distribute the Fleur de lis at that time, so if you lost a family member in this past year, please attend the 11am mass to receive your plaque.

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY.

We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call—to bring the Gospel to all!
The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the work and service of the mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious, and lay leaders who offer the Lord’s mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope’s missions. Thank you for your generosity.

Bishop Daniel E. Thomas Celebrates Oct.
24 Mass for the Dignity of Life

October is designated as “Respect Life Month.”

Join Bishop Daniel E. Thomas for a Mass to Celebrate the Dignity of Life at 9 a.m.,
Saturday, October 24, at St. Catherine’s
Parish, 4555 N. Haven Ave., Toledo, OH.
The Mass will be followed by a Eucharistic Procession to Capital Care, Toledo’s last remaining abortion facility, where participants will chant the Divine Mercy
Chaplet, then process back to St.
Catherine’s Parish.

WATCH

POPE JOHN PAUL II

This epic film follows Karol Wojtyla's journey from his youth in Poland through his late days on the Chair of St. Peter. It explores his life behind the scenes: how he touched millions of people, changed the face of the Church and the world, and how he defended the dignity of mankind.

LECTIO: EVANGELIZATION

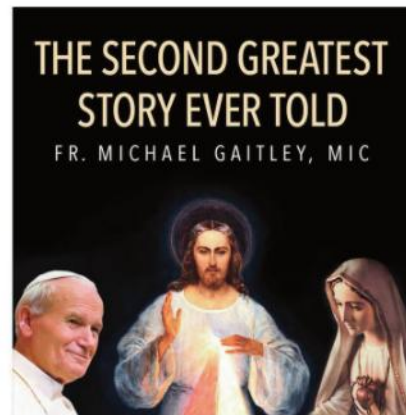

In this ten-part series, Dr. Mary Healy combines insightful biblical study with Church teaching and practical advice, to show how modern Catholics can effectively impact their world for Jesus Christ.
