ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

The Advent Season has come of late to be considered a period of penitential introspection, self-denial and other ways and means of doing penance. It's supposed to be a time of watchful waiting but waiting in joyful expectation for what has been promised from the very beginning, a savior. How can that be anything but a period of excitement, song, festivity, and perhaps even partying? True, we should be careful not to begin the partying appropriate to Christmas until Christmas, but we should not make Advent a four-week version of Lent.

How we make note of the prophetic history leading up to the birth of Christ at the other end of Advent can help us shape those four weeks into the period of happiness and joy they should be. You might begin by looking up the resources about Advent available on the FORMED platform. You might want to set aside one evening each week of Advent to watch one of the many films available touching on the Patriarchs or the prophets who provide the words of promise that the time of salvation is at hand. A family gathering for one of those movies, complete with buttery popcorn and cold pop, would certainly be a festive moment to celebrate our faith and our family. At the sometime, such a choice avoids rushing too quickly into Rudolph and the Grinch!

I recently saw an Advent Calendar of various different beers at one of the big box stores. I'm not sure that's the idea behind the Advent calendar, but it certainly points to the festivity with which the season should be celebrated. Perhaps following the Church's calendar might help us keep the meaning of Advent as a period of watchful waiting and make us aware of the sacrifices of those who did the waiting. There are over two hundred saints whose feasts are commemorated on the days leading up to Christmas so there's far more than Saint Nick and Saint Lucy to keep our attention on a life of holiness. Several sites on the web will introduce you to these amazing people.

Take time to really make Advent meaningful by celebrating it as more than a period of days set aside to shop for Christmas. Use those days, or part of them when you're not rushing around buying all the Christmas gifts, to give thought to what it was the people of the Bible were waiting for and then give thanks that you live in a time when you know the Christ that the people were waiting for and you are using these weeks to renew your loving welcome for him.

Mary Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

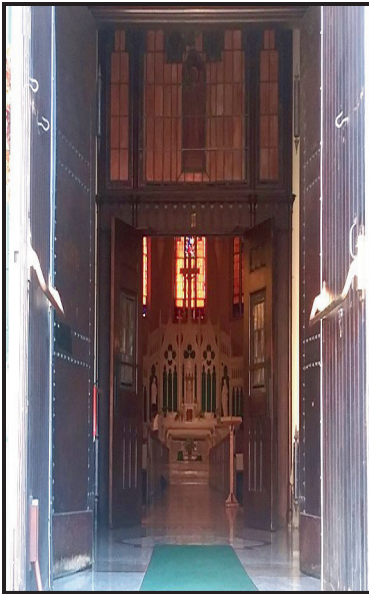

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

Prayer For Our Parish

Heavenly Father, You have chosen the parish as the place by which you encounter us in our daily lives.

Here Your Word is proclaimed, the Eucharist is celebrated, and your people are united to a family of believers. We thank you for the abundant blessings You have given to our parish, and pray that we may continue to serve You in faithfulness and love.

Keep us open to our need of Your love and fellowship. Help us to work together to serve You and each other for the good of the Church, for the people of our Parish and for Your greater glory.

Amen
