ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God

Last Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent, marked the start of the Church's Liturgical Year. As I'm sure you know, many of these little articles are the result of people asking me questions after Mass or in a brief note or phone call. I believe most of them are things everybody is interested in so here goes another: "Father, why does the Liturgical Year end weeks before the calendar year? Why don't the two agree?" Well, we might ask the same thing of the Chinese New Year, the Jewish New Year, the Islamic New Year and several others which don't follow the Gregorian calendar as we do here in the United States and as many others do in much of the world. All of these various calendars are intrinsically tied to a culture which has important dates, including the founding of the culture, the institution of some significant holy day, or for some other reason tied to the way the people lived.

Our Liturgical Year is built around two significant holy days, Christmas and Easter. Back when the Church was just getting itself on the road, the day of Christ's birth was considered important enough to merit a festival and it was hidden within a larger Roman festival (Saturnalia) to prevent persecution. It was months away from the Roman New Year (April 1). As the Church grew and began to understand salvation history, Christmas came to be preceded by four weeks of preparation commemorating the millennia of waiting undertaken by the Jews watching for the Messiah. Since those four weeks represented the beginning of salvation history, the first week of Advent was considered the first week of the Church's annual celebration of our salvation. The Romans eventually moved their New Year's Day to January, but that was done to reconcile the calendar to the natural rhythms of the earth significant for planting and harvesting.

The more important festival day for us Christians is Easter, traditionally the first Sunday following the first full moon following the Spring equinox. Because the celebration of Jesus' resurrection was set on a fixed calendar date, this formula was developed in order to keep the commemoration of the Resurrection on a Sunday rather than on the fixed calendar date. Because the sun and moon move at different rates, the celebration of Easter can move around quite a bit, from just after March 21 until well into April. That creates a problem for the calendar which is resolved by varying the number of weeks in Ordinary Time following the Christmas season and then following Easter. In the end, though, the Church's liturgical calendar is focused on the great events of salvation; thus, varying the number of weeks of Ordinary Time is not a huge issue. In fact, Christmas had been celebrated in many different months until Pope Julius I in 350 undertook a study to determine the most probable time. The Dec 25 date accommodates the fact that getting people to travel to register for the Roman census could not interfere with harvest or planting or lambing; all of these were important economic issues which the Romans would not have wanted to disrupt because that would mean less tax revenue.

We are at the beginning of our Liturgical Year. Let's continue to use this Advent as a true time of watchful waiting.

Mags. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

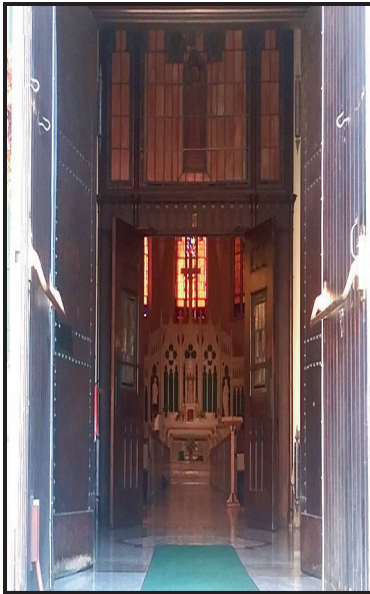

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
