ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

I recently had a conversation with a parishioner who commented that there are still some who believe that unless you become Catholic, you can't be saved. Of course, the parishioner didn't believe that and neither does the Church. In fact, you can't come to Mass and not hear the Church praying just the opposite!

At the end of the Eucharistic Prayers (there are ten and all of them end much the same), the Universal Church prays for the dead. Here's an example from Eucharistic Prayer II:

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the Resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy, welcome them into the light of your face.

Those who have fallen asleep in the hope of the Resurrection isn't limited to Catholics but includes everyone who believes in Jesus and the Good News of salvation. All who have died in your mercy goes well beyond Christianity and would include people of faith of every stripe. The prayer is to allow God to do God's will and his will is the salvation of souls by whatever means God has to accomplish that end.

On the other hand, if God reveals the fullness of truth to any of us in the Catholic faith, then we should continue to be Catholic and do what Catholics do: adhere to the Profession of Faith, live out the Mission of Baptism to proclaim the Good News, give full faith to and believe in the Teaching magisterium, embrace the Precepts of the Church and powerfully witness to the Great Command to love God, ourselves and our neighbors whether they're Catholic or not. This means, as Benedict wrote most recently, once a Catholic, always a Catholic. You can't leave the Church; you may seem to do so but your heart never does.

I often hear from disgruntled Catholics (did you ever meet a grunted Catholic?) that well, I was baptized by my parents before I had a chance to make a choice of my own. Parents love their children and wish for them the gift of salvation, a gift that offers the baptized the true presence of Jesus Christ to walk life in partnership. That's a pretty great gift to be throwing away because it wasn't your choice. Our personal choice comes into play at Confirmation when we stand before the Bishop and choose to be an active Catholic, not just one who stands off to the side and lets others do God's important work. I would suggest that people who complain about the Church or being Catholic aren't active and never were; if they were content to be Catholic and especially if they were active, they'd find ample reason to say thanks to whoever brought them to the faith.

Meg. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

You notice the pew availability has been adjusted so that only every other pew is roped off. More room as our family is coming back. We are still at acceptable distances, and we ask that you continue to wear masks while we are together !

Bake Sale for Mother's Day next weekend! Come and purchase (or donate) if you can. It's so nice to treat Mom!

We will also have our Mother's Day flowers for moms next weekend. Thank you to the loyal floral committee who didn't let the year without flowers dull their skills.

Happy Birthday Fr. Rudi!!

The ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES WITH MARK HART

The feast day of Saints Philip and James reminds us of the impact that the Apostles made on the whole world. With Philip, James, and all the Apostles in mind, join Mark Hart in this refresher on the Book of Acts.

LISTEN

REACHING OUT TO TODAY'S CULTURE BY BISHOP ROBERT BARRON

Saints Philip and James each lived extraordinary lives of missionary zeal. In this insightful talk, Bishop Barron shares his advice on how to live similar lives of mission within a culture dominated by media and misconceptions about faith.
