ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

I had an interesting conversation with someone of another ecclesial community (Church) who told me he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and savior at baptism. The Catechism of The Catholic Church reminds us that faith, one's conversion to Jesus as a savior, occurs before baptism and leads us to an ecclesial community or Church where baptism provides the external sign and symbol of our becoming part of that Church. For Catholics we believe that baptism joins us to the universal Body of Christ; thus, while baptism generally marks us as Catholics, we don't need to ever re-baptize those baptized in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit in any other ecclesial community since our faith tells us that baptism is once for all.

As a sign of membership, baptism obliges us to become a genuine, active part of the community in which we have been baptized. Recall the words of Jesus to the Disciples as he prepared to ascend to the Father: go, teach all nations, baptizing them. . . . Given the genuine, active role of membership conferred by baptism means we should always and ever be disciples, a word which means "student of an admitted Master."

Students learn and that's the real emphasis we ought to be putting on our baptism. We should learn everything we can about God, Jesus, salvation, Sacraments, the hierarchical structures of our Church and its Mission and Ministry. We should then become active and involved in what our Church does, from being part of the praying community on a regular basis to volunteering for any of its many ministries. That involvement is the way we take up the same work of teaching which Jesus gave to the disciples and all those who follow in their footsteps. The most important aspect of the teaching we do in accord with the Gospels is to invite others to come along with us on the journey of faith in the Catholic community. Making good use of FORMED can give all of us some great ideas on how to do that all-important inviting.

Why not take up the challenge of discipleship and over the next months before October (when RCIA begins in earnest), ask ten people, especially a few younger ones, to give serious thought to becoming a Catholic? Fifty positive responses would certainly be a great blessing not only for the parish but also for your exercise of your baptismal membership and your confirmation commitment.

Since I recently wrote about using the FORMED platform, here are two opportunities for nurturing your faith which are relevant to today's bulletin letter. You can read the essential teachings of the Catholic Church in the Catechism of the Catholic Church beginning at §1213 with a brief summary at §§1275-1284. Or you can have all of this explained in a video or audio presentation by going to the FORMED platform: look up the sacrament of baptism and find a wealth of material to choose from.

Meg. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

WELCOME TO IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to Immaculate Conception where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family whether in Ministry, Service or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner please call the parish office at 419-243-1829. Registration forms for new parishioners can be found on the visitor's stand in the back of church. Also available on line at www.iccatdarby.org

A call to our altar servers! If you served on the altar before Covid-19 and feel comfortable in returning to service as we return to our new normal, please call the parish office (419-243-1829) or talk with Mike Young who is heading up the server program. You would be working with the adults that have stepped up during this time, so you would not be alone, and they will refresh your memory in what needs to be done.

Queen of Apostles School is seeking a middle school (grades 5-8) Science/ Religion teacher. The candidate must hold a valid Ohio teaching license or a nontax teaching license. Please send a cover letter, resume, copy of licensure and references/letters of recommendation to Louise Hoschak at hoschak@ccmthschool.org. You may call the school office at 419-241-7829

Also, Louann Meagher needs to know if any of our people would like to move into the lector or eucharistic ministry rolls. If you served before, the new schedules have you on for the near future. If you had not been active before, please call Louann at 419-277-2650 and leave a message.

Just a few reviews as we return to our rolls on the altar:

IF you are a lector, and there is a procession before mass to the altar, the lector will process up with the priest and deacon.

IF there is no deacon, the lector will remain on the altar to read the prayer of the faithful, which follows the Creed. The lector will then return to their pew. If there is a deacon, the Lector will return to their pew following their readings.

For our Eucharistic ministers, you will enter the sanctuary at the Lamb of God. IF no deacon, the additional EM will also approach the altar at that time.

Eucharistic ministers who distribute on the “protected” side, will wear masks while distributing. Also, for those EMs, be attentive for those who are unable to come to the altar and take Eucharist to them.

Prayer to St. Joseph

Hail Guardian of the Redeemer, spouse of the Blessed Virgin! To you, God entrusted His only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you, Christ became a man. Blessed Joseph, too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life; obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen
