Dear People of God,

With the return to normal, such as it is, I was asked why the bishops of Ohio (and everywhere else) suspended the obligation to be at Mass every Sunday if it's such an important function of being Catholic. Indeed, weekly attendance is among the check-list items which are minimally required to be able to claim one is a Catholic. Each baptized person, man and woman, young and old, should consider it a vital sign of community and a thankful return to God for the manifold gifts we have received. So, why did the bishops suspend the requirement?

The Church doesn't exist to punish people so the precepts (those minimal behaviors we're supposed to follow – see FORMED for insight into these behaviors) are what is called ecclesiological law, that is, something the Church itself defines so can also change. As the principal lawgiver/enforcer in the diocese, the bishop can change those laws for the good of his people. A pandemic certainly seems a time to think of the good health of the people in the diocese and take action to ease the requirements.

However, given the importance of this particular law about weekly attendance of the community giving community worship and adoration to God, a single bishop is hesitant to act without consulting his neighbors. A bishop's neighbors generally are the bishops of the Province (usually a civil governmental unit such as Ohio or Michigan). If the bishops agree that the law ought to be relaxed in their own dioceses, then they would tend to act together, issuing a statement to which each affixes his signature to show agreement and precisely what law is being eased. Although the bishops temporarily waived physical attendance at mass, they supported and encouraged "attendance" via other formats: thus Catholics were able to be at mass via internet streaming, Facebook, and TV broadcasts. Here at IC, we were able to watch HSP Mass streamed on Facebook and YouTube.

Ohio's bishops, following the advice and guidance of the Ohio Department of Health, deemed it wise and prudent to excuse people from Mass while the worst of the pandemic was threatening the good health of Catholic men and women. That decision wasn't taken lightly. In the past, outbreaks of serious illness were not seen as calling for such a suspension. Those who got the sickness were certainly excused: the sick are not bound by the rule and shouldn't be at Mass anyway to prevent spreading the illness. The Coronavirus pandemic was spread by aerosols so a sneeze, a cough, hiccup, even speaking excitedly could send the virus into the atmosphere and infect people as far as twelve feet away. Because the Mass is often crowded with people much closer than that, the bishops, guided by the Health department, decided it was far better to stay home and pray than join the community and risk the virus. As of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, the requirement is back in place, and it is the expectation of the Church that all Catholics who want to be considered Catholic will be at Mass every Sunday.

See you there!

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

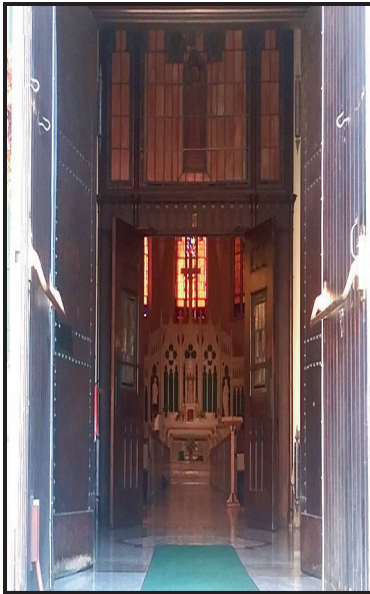

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Thank you to those who were able to help us honor and celebrate our Dads! The “flower girls”, the bakers, and the buyers ALL made it happen. We raised $179.00 and added to our $300.00 from Mother’s Day, it enables us to beautify the front of our Outreach building! We have contracted with Sofia Quintero Center for 2 panels that will grace the front of the Outreach building, decorated by local children and artists, carrying out the themes leading up and down Broadway.

For those who have asked about weeding, we will be concentrating on the grotto area and Western Ave side since much of that part has been beaten up by the current road improvement project. But it will be nice when it’s done, right?

A call to our altar servers! If you served on the altar before Covid-19 and feel comfortable in returning to service as we return to our new normal, please call the parish office (419-243-1829) or talk with Mike Young who is heading up the server program. You would be working with the adults that have stepped up during this time, so you would not be alone, and they will refresh your memory in what needs to be done.

We have been given the opportunity to find a good home for a console chord organ with bench. The donor wants no money but asks that whomever requests it would give it a good home and enjoy making music! If you are interested, please call the parish office at 419-243-1829.

Our ice cream socials will return on Sunday, July 11th after mass. This will happen every other Sunday until September! Linger and refresh ;-)

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

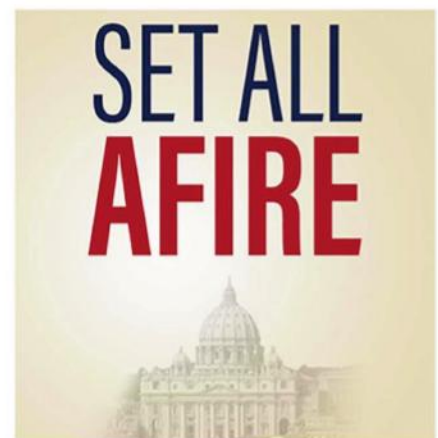

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the “rock” upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today.
