"There is need
 of only one thing.
 Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Luke 10:42

Dear People of God,

Because of bulletin deadlines and the need to have these letters submitted well in advance, I'm often out of sync with what's happening in the world. When possible, I try to interrupt the prepared letters with something topical; however, more often than not I miss and have to play catch-up later. Thus, I want to belatedly comment on the recent consecration of Earl Fernandes as the Bishop of Columbus and in doing so, answer a question I got shortly after it was announced that he was to be made a bishop: How are bishops chosen?

Essentially, they are men who have done something to draw them to the attention of others in their diocese in a positive way. They are well-known and respected. Many have already come to the attention of Rome where the ultimate decisions are always made. However, the process begins locally with a questionnaire sent by the bishop once every three years to a random selection of Catholic parishioners seeking their input naming those they might know who fit the above parameters. They generally are asked to submit three names. The returned names are assembled into a package from which every few years the bishop sends on the names of several good candidates to the regional Archbishop, in our case Cincinnati. He then periodically goes through the list and sends on the best qualified to the Papal Nuncio in Washington where several candidates are then vetted and their names sent to people who should know them for a personal recommendation. Those who get good marks from ordinary people in the Church are sent on to the Congregation for Bishops in Rome. When a vacancy occurs, the Congregation submits a list of qualified candidates to the pope who makes the final call.

Of course, all of this has a certain inherent political aspect to it because at each stage, the one doing the choosing from the overall list would normally be looking for (a) somebody he knows (b) who he believes will act in a similar way. Thus, the progressive selector will usually select a progressive and the traditionalist a traditionalist. There's nothing wrong with that; we all like people who are like us and would do our best to see that they succeed.

Bishop Fernandes no doubt got preferential treatment because (1) the people of Cincinnati like him a lot, (2) the bishop of Cincinnati can trust him a lot, (3) the nuncio knows him personally because Bishop Earl worked for him for a few years. In other words, those who do the selecting know he fits the criteria I mentioned up above and believe he will be an able shepherd to his people because he's already shown that's what he does. A recent Sunday Blade featured a lengthy article about Bishop Fernandes, his family, his local and clerical history and his priestly service, all of which documented key factors and personal qualities which make him an admirable selection for his new role. In addition, his Toledo roots inspire a particular warm spot in our recognition of him and an appreciation for his acknowledgement of that warmth as recently reflected in his return to celebrate mass on June 12 in our beautiful cathedral

Congratulations Toledo native Earl K. Fernandes. May God bless you and the people of Columbus.

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Camila Dorantes

Welcome to the Church!

If you were unable to attend either of the enrichment classes for Extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, you can still attend the first study session on Thursday, July 21st at 6 pm in the chapel. Please come to the office door and ring the bell. Light refreshments will be offered! This study will continue for additional Thursdays for those who wish to attend!

Get your order in!

Order forms, and envelopes, are located both at the back and front of the church. Please complete the form and submit it with payment using the envelope. Drop it in the collection basket or off to the office. This is a prepaid order only. Orders will be collected until August 1st. Cost is $35.

Checks may be made payable to Immaculate Conception

*Please add "Darby windbreaker" to the memo line

Since some (most!) of our parishioners who have served on the Liturgy Committee and the Christian Formation Committees have become unable to serve, we are searching for a few people who enjoy this ministry. The Liturgy Committee helps plan special masses: decorations, intentions, etc., and the Christian Formation Committee helps plan prayer services, bible studies, and works with sacramental preparation both for youth and adults. Sound overwhelming!? Well, with the help of the Spirit and each other, we can do it! I would like to meet with interested parties after Sunday mass on Aug. 14th. Thank you!

Questions?

Call Mary Jo at 419-343-8489.

GET YOUR TICKETS!

Darby Derby tickets are officially on sale. You can purchase your ticket for $35 from Mary Jo (Saturday) or Louann (Sunday), at the back of the church, or by stopping by the parish office. Cash or check accepted.

If you would like to mail in your payment, please send a check to the church. Your ticket will then be available for pick up at the event.

Contact the office for any questions you may have.

Ice Cream Socials

Join us every other Sunday following the 11 am Mass. Mark your calendars for a tasty social time!

Your generous donations to Hospitality for bake sales and ice cream social are being used for minor expenses around the church! Thank you, once again! You guys are great!

We are looking for a proactive, efficient, part-time church custodian. The custodian will ensure that all areas of the church are clean and ready for other staff members and the congregation to use. The custodian will be responsible for minor repairs, vacuuming/sweeping/scrubbing floors, cleaning, sanitizing, restocking items, lawn maintenance, snow removal, and event preparation.

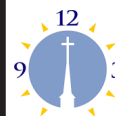

To be a successful custodian, they must be able to lift 75+ lbs, successfully pass a background check, and be observant, respectful, motivated, and committed to providing church members, visitors, and staff with a clean, orderly place to worship and congregate.

For a more detailed list of responsibilities and requirements or to submit your resume, please email Nicole at nicole@iccatdarby.org.

Donations

To help offset the cost of hosting a fundraising event, such as the Darby Derby, we are asking for monetary donations. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please see Louann or Nicole. Thank you, and God bless!

WHO AM I TO JUDGE? WITH DR. EDWARD SRI - SESSION 1: DON'T IMPOSE YOUR MORALITY ON ME!

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality. At that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. So, how do we talk about right and wrong in this world? In this series, Dr. Ted Sri explores the fragility of a relativist outlook and the importance of absolute truth.
