

With your fatherly blessing, Lord, strengthen these servants of yours in their resolve to dedicate themselves as catechists. Grant that they may be able to teach that they themselves derive from pondering your word and studying the church's teaching. And let them gladly join those they teach in honoring and serving your name. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Antiph. Book of Blessings

Catechetical Sunday

Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children.

They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation.

ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

On a regular basis I tend to work one or another of two basic Catholic beliefs into my homily – either the Real Presence of Jesus in all seven of the sacraments but most especially the Eucharist, or I'll wave over at the crucifix as a reminder that the crucifixion of Jesus is a core belief of the Catholic Church: he died on the cross as a sign of God's love so we could be saved from ourselves. Apparently this led someone to examine the crucifix more closely and that led to a question: What do the letters INRI stand for since inri isn't a common English word?

They are the letters of the four-word phrase Pontius Pilate had tacked to the cross on which Jesus was crucified. It was the ordinary practice to indicate why somebody was being punished on the cross so onlookers would be warned not to commit that particular behavior. It might say "Robbery" or "Murder" or some other simple term everybody would understand. In Jesus' case it should have been "Sedition" or "Treason" since that's what the Sanhedrin accused him of in order to invoke Roman Law and get him on the cross. If that had been the case, the sign above him would have read either Seditio or Proditio but neither of those was on the cross. Rather, Pilate, the Governor of Roman Palestine, demanded that the phrase Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews be posted and in no less than three languages: Latin, Hebrew and Greek. Why three?

The answer lay in the law and the conquered people. The legal language of the Empire in that period was Greek so an official decree of death had to be in Greek. Few "people on the street" knew Greek so it was also there in Latin, the unofficial language of the Empire like English is of the world today. This would have made the criminality well known to the thousands of foreign visitors in Jerusalem for Passover. Finally, because the case had been referred to Pilate by the Sanhedrin, the Jewish religious government, Pilate had the same phrase posted in Hebrew which, like Latin today, was the official but rarely publicly used language of the Jewish Church. Most Palestinians of that era spoke Aramaic. Jesus was probably fluent in all three and perhaps a couple of others since Jerusalem was the biggest city on a very busy trade route from Africa to Asia and Europe. So here they are, the three phrases Pilate had painted on a sign above Jesus:

Latin: Iesus Nazarenus, Rex Iudaeorum

Greek: Αυτός είναι ο Ιησούς ο βασιλιάς των Εβραίων

Hebrew: ישו מנצרת, מלך היהודים

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Darby Derby Tickets

The last day to get your Darby Derby tickets after Mass will be September 18th. After that, you may purchase your ticket at the door the night of the event.

We are looking for a proactive, efficient, part-time church custodian. The custodian will ensure that all areas of the church are clean and ready for other staff members and the congregation to use. The custodian will be responsible for minor repairs, vacuuming/sweeping/scrubbing floors, cleaning, sanitizing, restocking items, lawn maintenance, snow removal, and event preparation.

To be a successful custodian, they must be able to lift 50 lbs, successfully pass a background check, and be observant, respectful, motivated, and committed to providing church members, visitors, and staff with a clean, orderly place to worship and congregate.

For a more detailed list of responsibilities and requirements or to submit your resume, please email Nicole at nicole@iccatdarby.org.

Immaculate Conception is pleased to provide a free opportunity for parishioner, their families, and friends. If you haven't signed up, here's the information.

Fall Faith Formation

Come and Grow Your Faith With HSP!

Tuesdays, September 6-October 25; 6:30-8 in church

Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant

Embark on a guided tour of the "Holy of Holies" of biblical theology. The book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith, but its highly refined theological concepts can be difficult for even the most seasoned Bible scholars to unpack.

Presented by Andrew Swofford and Jeff Carvins, Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant draws out the riches of this sublime book in a way that makes them easier to understand. It draws connections between the Old and New Testaments, the Liturgy, the Eucharist, the priesthood, and so much more. Most importantly, Hebrews will help Catholics appreciate the astounding generosity of God as they see the wonders he has given us in the Church. (Cost: $29.95 for workbook)

The perfect followup...

Wednesdays, September 7-October 26; 6:30-8 in church

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

What do Catholics really believe? The Catechism can be a difficult and tedious read BUT, thanks to Real+True (a Formed program), they were able to create a way to share and explain the Catechism in a beautiful, captivating, and relevant format. Join us for an engaging video and discussion as we learn about the CCC. (Cost: Free)

Join us for one or both evenings! We always have great discussions and snacks!

For more information or to sign up, contact Martha at Martha.Farrell15@gmail.com.

We are still looking for a few volunteers to help with Religious education. Classes will be on Tuesday early evenings, so may be helpful for those who have hectic weekends! Call the office or see Mary Jo for more information.

Thank you to the grillers and those that were able to join us for our hospitality kickoff.

PADRE PIO BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Filmed on location in Italy, starring Michele Placido in a moving performance, this film tells the whole story of the beloved monk from San Giovanni Rotondo, a place where millions of pilgrims now annually visit Padre Pio's grave.

LEARN

FORMED FOR MISSION: AN APOSTOLIC SPIRITUALITY

Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down for a weekly show on evangelization and mission. "Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize" (EN, 14). We pray that these discussions may help all the faithful be further conformed to Christ and become powerful evangelists in the world today.

LISTEN

THE LEGENDS OF ROBIN HOOD AUDIO DRAMA

The child of a reputable family and a faithful son of the Church, Robert of Locksley had no intention of becoming an outlaw. But the relentless cruelty and tyranny by the elite nobility of England demanded that someone rise up to give answer. And so Robert of Locksley became Robin Hood — a man thrown into a fierce struggle to balance his deep faith with a call to action in a violent age.
