

How can I repay the Lord for all the good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Lord, I am your servant.

ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Priesthood
Sunday

Dear People of God,

Since Covid it seems that time truly flies; here we are already on the verge of October, the month of the Rosary. Given this October focus, I thought I'd do a brief tour of the twenty mysteries of the rosary over the next couple of weeks. Yes, that's right: there are twenty mysteries of the rosary since Pope St. John Paul II added five Luminous Mysteries. I'll get to them eventually but first I'd like to address what the rosary is and how it ought to be prayed since I suspect many (perhaps most) of us are doing it all wrong.

The rosary properly prayed is a meditative exercise in which the vocalized words, repetitive and simple, distract us from the world around us so we can inwardly give serious thought to the mystery being contemplated. That means that despite being drawn from Sacred Scripture, the Our Father, Hail Mary and the early Church's statement of faith, the Glory Be, are not the focus of the rosary. Those prayers are certainly important but they are a means of attaining something far more sublime: the mystery itself.

We should know that each of the mysteries leads us to the partnership between God and each of us as individuals and all of us as the community of faith. Thus, as we allow the words to remove our attention from the world around us, we can begin to consider the all-important function of each of the mysteries. Our first thought ought to be "Why did God do it that way?" That should lead us to a few other thoughtful questions our contemplation begins to resolve: What aspect of the human condition is made holy or sacred by God's participation in it as a purely human activity? How should that affect my behavior toward myself and others, especially the Church as the Body of Christ? What difference did this particular participation by Jesus make in the world of his time? How does that reflect on Jesus' participation in the world in which I live?

Each of the twenty mysteries is an opportunity to open our minds, hearts and souls to God's Word but only if we pray the rosary the right way. Sure, repeating the words is helpful but doing so does not offer the same interaction between each of us and our loving God.

The mysteries are grouped in sets of five delineated by the underlying thought mode we ought to bring to that particular set. Why should our joy be expanded by the Joyful Mysteries? What is illuminated for us by the Luminous Mysteries? What genuine sorrow should be evoked by each of the Sorrowful Mysteries? What promise of future glory for me or for the parish or for the world is revealed by the Glorious Mysteries?

Real meditation can make huge changes in our lives and that of the Church. In the past when a Rosary Crusade was launched by the Universal Church, genuine effects in the course of history were recorded and that could happen again. However, it takes a lot of effort to pray the rosary as it was meant to be prayed, using our mind to bring into sharp focus an event from two thousand years ago and make it come alive for us in the contemporary world. So, as October rushes up on us, give the real rosary a try during the weeks of the Month of the Rosary.

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.icatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

WATCH THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and makes the surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her "Little Way."

ANGELS: BISHOP FULTON SHEEN

In this compilation of three episodes from his classic television program, "Life is Worth Living," Bishop Fulton Sheen delivers his thoughts on various elements of the Catholic Faith with his ever-present humor, animated presentation, and captivating mode of speaking. In the first segment, "Angels," Bishop Sheen explicates the nature of angels and the meaningful role they play in our world.

LISTEN

THE CASE FOR JESUS BY DR. BRANT PITRE

Dr. Brant Pitre, Scripture scholar and bestselling author, uses biblical and historical evidence to bolster the "case for Jesus" by exposing the problems with the many false theories that have been introduced over the past hundred years, resulting in widespread skepticism about the reliability of Christian Faith. He tackles head-on questions like: Were the four Gospels written anonymously? Did Jesus claim to be God? Did Jesus fulfill the Jewish prophecies of the Messiah? and many more.

Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant

Embark on a guided tour of the "Holy of Holies" of biblical theology. The book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith, but its highly refined theological concepts can be difficult for even the most seasoned Bible scholars to unpack.

Presented by Andrew Swafford and Jeff Carvins, Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant draws out the riches of this sublime book in a way that makes them easier to understand. It draws connections between the Old and New Testaments, the Liturgy, the Eucharist, the priesthood, and so much more. Most importantly, Hebrews will help Catholics appreciate the astounding generosity of God as they see the wonders he has given us in the Church. (Cost: $29.95 for workbook)
