ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

I've been looking at the mysteries of the Rosary and have now arrived at the traditional Sorrowful Mysteries. Like the other sets, they are supposed to evoke the feelings of sorrow that are such an ordinary part of our human existence. Many things, events, people and places can lead us to feel sad and perhaps even isolated. That's ordinary and human and okay as we can see from Jesus' triumphant handling of each of the moments of these sorrowful steps on his pilgrim way. Here they are:

The Agony in the Garden – Talk about isolated! Jesus is there by himself wrestling with a truly painful decision. The friends he asked to be alert on his behalf have fallen asleep. We often find ourselves in a similar spot, perhaps when we hear that dread word "Cancer" or when the doctor says "There's nothing we can do for Grandma." What do we do next? It's the same question Jesus is asking his Father.

The Scourging at the Pillar – I suppose all of us have childhood memories of getting caught for something we didn't do, usually because an older sibling or bully at school "turns us in." It can happen in adulthood when we're wrongly accused of something, perhaps by a neighbor, fellow worker or even a total stranger. Jesus himself commented elsewhere in his ministry how to get beyond these moments of sorrow: Perseverance.

The Crowning with Thorns – Although this was a physical moment for Jesus, the experiences in our lives often lead to intense mental anguish or sorrow, a pain within the mind that parallels the pain in Jesus' scalp as the thorns dig deep. We might pause in our reflection to consider those sad thoughts about which we can't really do much at the time but toss and turn in bed, pace the room but can't seem to rid ourselves of the thoughts.

Carrying the Cross – Burdens of all sorts can weigh us down: mentally, spiritually, emotionally, psychologically and even physically as the wood did to Jesus. These burdens lead to intense sadness or sorrow, especially when they seem to have no end in sight. There are many examples: perhaps the mother whose child has senselessly used a gun to commit a killing, a child whose parents constantly fight and argue, a neighbor who has to put up with our loud parties every weekend, a teacher who finds the parents worse to deal with than the unruly child.

As you pray the Sorrowful Mysteries, take time to consider the human experience each evokes in your own life and join Jesus in the deepest sadness and sorrow of his life.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory at Historic St. Patrick @ 419-243-6452.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Dan Streeter will be leading the Rosary at 3:40, before Mass, every Saturday during the month of October. Feel free to join every Saturday or any Saturday your available.

All Saints Day, Nov.1st, will be on Tuesday this year, so we will be joining our school kids at the 9:10 am Mass. This is a Holy Day of Obligation, so we encourage all to attend Mass on Tuesday, either here at IC or at a neighboring parish for an evening mass.

Remember, if you are interested in RCIA, learning more about our Catholic faith and completing your sacraments, there will be a short meeting following the 11 am Mass on Sunday, Oct.23rd with Deacon Tom. Please come to Mass, stay after, and learn!

On All Souls Day, Nov.2nd, we will especially be remembering those from our parish family who passed away since November of 2021. If you have a family member or friend who has died, we invite you to come to Mass on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd at 6:00 pm and celebrate their life!

Thanks for your support of Outreach! We welcome your donations for the Thanksgiving baskets. We all know that groceries have gone up, so any item you can contribute to complete our 30 baskets will be great!

Outreach will not be receiving the supply of winter coats and jackets that we have gotten in the past. If you have any good jackets, any size, please consider donating them, either here at church or at Outreach during our business hours! Thanks!

Luis Garcia Medina, through baptism you became a member of God's family.

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call - to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the work and service of the mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious, and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

We are looking for a proactive, efficient, part-time church custodian. The custodian will ensure that all areas of the church are clean and ready for other staff members and the congregation to use. The custodian will be responsible for minor repairs, vacuuming/sweeping/scrubbing floors, cleaning, sanitizing, restocking items, lawn maintenance, snow removal, and event preparation.

To be a successful custodian, they must be able to lift 50 lbs, successfully pass a background check, and be observant, respectful, motivated, and committed to providing church members, visitors, and staff with a clean, orderly place to worship and congregate.

For a more detailed list of responsibilities and requirements or to submit your resume, please email Nicole at nicole@iccatdarby.org.

With God in Russia

Well known for his heroic story of surviving 24 years in Russian prison camps, this film about the great Jesuit Fr. Walter Ciszek traces his incredible endurance and struggle for survival. It highlights his tremendous faith in God, and the remarkable impact his life has had on the resurgence of Catholicism in Russia, as seen with on location footage from around the world.

The Last Things

This film presents the reality of death and what will follow for every person: first the Particular Judgment before God, and second, Heaven or Hell as our destination for all eternity. The Catholic teaching on Purgatory is also explained.

What Is Heaven?

Does heaven exist? Is heaven the eternal Church? Dr. Michael Barber and Chris Stefanick clear up common misunderstandings about heaven.
