ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

We're still giving some thought to low Mass attendance, a subject I've been looking at through the lens of time, talent and treasure and an entitlement mentality which seems to be gripping many contemporary Christians. I have discussed sharing our talents and made the connection between talent and time: if we don't have the time, we won't be sharing our talents. These two obligations are inextricably bound.

However, there's another reason we don't see people volunteering their talents. We live in a culture which has become increasingly isolated despite the so-called advances we've made in "social" media. Unfortunately, social media is impersonal, divorced from the give and take of interpersonal contacts which allow for spontaneity and discourse rather than waiting for a text which has to be decoded and then responded to. In fact, most social media is not social at all since "social" by its very meaning involves lots of people: family, friends, co-workers, other fans at the football game, people in the pews. The technologically induced isolation of not-so-social media has led to what I call a cultural bashfulness to undertake what used to be ordinary conversations, or to step forward to offer one's services to others for fear of rejection which is an all too common response seen on social media. You can experience this on the street or in the store – people are afraid to speak to one another. They look away or down at their feet rather than see who is passing by.

In fact, people in a parish are still quite open to sharing their talents but they do not readily volunteer; they have to be invited. In part that's the cultural bashfulness showing up and because others feel the same way, no one's doing the inviting. However, the failure to eagerly volunteer is often a consequence of entitlement. The entitled develop certain behaviors which the Church sometimes refers to as the seven capital sins, chief among them a sense of self-importance and arrogance – the classic sin of pride - that leads many to believe they deserve to be courted for the talents they might want to share if the recognition value is deemed high enough. Unless asked, they would not deign to stoop so low as to volunteer.

Whether it's cultural bashfulness brought about by the decline in real society or the arrogance of entitlement, the end result is the same: parishes begin to curtail their ministries because, like all of us, the staff just do not have the time to go out and recruit the necessary talent. Over time the reduction in ministry can have a devastating effect on Sunday attendance. As disciples of Christ, we should all take time to reflect on the talents God has given us and then volunteer to make use of them on behalf of God and God's people. That's one way to think of the Great Mission Jesus gave as he ascended into heaven.

The disciples are told to "go out and teach all nations. . ." By baptism we're all included in that mission and God has endowed each of us with some particular aspect of the teaching which we can accomplish. Whatever it is, large or small, it's given for the Body of Christ into which we are drawn by any of the sacraments. Unfortunately, we are immersed in a culture which gives the opposite message – you are the center of the universe and it ought to revolve around you. As I recall, the center of the universe, the center of every galaxy, is a big Black Hole into which anything close by is sucked in to no apparent good. The risk of our contemporary society is that we become useless Black Holes absorbing everything but giving nothing. How sad, but you can make a difference. Consider doing so.

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.icatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!
