ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

As I've been working on the topic of low Mass attendance, someone who read the letters asked me to justify my remarks about entitlement. I've suggested that as Christ's people, all of us owe one another in the parish and Church some of our time, our talent and our treasure (which I'll get to eventually). I then opined that it is my belief that many Christians and Catholics have fallen prey to an entitlement mentality.

Let me first define entitlement from a couple different angles. There are government programs targeted at assisting particular groups of people and if you're in that group, you are the beneficiary of the program. We're all familiar with the two biggest of these programs: Social Security and Medicare. Please note that somebody or some group paid the government a fee (FICA for example) to earn the payout so these are not technically "entitlements" but rather an obligation of the government to return the investment made by the participants. Other programs, for example the Child Credit or the Free Cafeteria Meal program, are true entitlements. The recipients of the payouts did not make an investment for which there is an obligation to make a payment. Please note that these are legislative acts which define a group which requires, in the estimation of the legislature, some assistance. These are clearly defined.

Beyond that there are very few genuine entitlements i.e. those things to which some one or some group has a right without first making some form of investment. Please note that most things we presume are entitlements are in fact obligations because we paid for them. For example, I'm entitled to watch HULU because I pay a regular fee to do so. I'm entitled to walk into Progressive Field to see a Guardians game because I paid the price of a ticket and woe betide anyone who sits in the wrong seat! (I used to take in the Tribe at Municipal Stadium when there were few people in attendance who cared where anyone sat, but the ushers were pretty convinced I wasn't entitled to those empty box seats)

An entitlement mentality has become the norm – many expect more than what they invest in – and has enlarged the meaning to a presumed right to all sorts of things. For example, why not go down and sit on the fifty-yard line at a Lions game? The mentality is far different than the reality and leads to people expecting something to which they have no real right. This crowd is vocal about their supposed preeminent position in the world and will lay claim quite loudly at the store, the gym, the movie theater, the soccer match, the hockey tournament and elsewhere, including church.

Entitled people believe that the Church is only for getting some personal reward at no cost. They fail to grasp that everyone there is only entitled to the same reward: Jesus Christ truly present in Word and Sacrament. That entitlement comes from the investment Jesus made on the Cross, not on what most people invest in their parish in terms of time, talent and treasure. Those are obligations we take on ourselves. While Jesus does not expect a quid pro quo regarding the benefits of the sacraments (Simony remains not only illegal but a sin), he does expect that all of us do our part to make the community function well. Too many people expecting to be waited upon weakens the fabric of the parish and when expectations aren't met, why bother to come?

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!
