ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Ohioans are currently in the process of voting on Issue 1; although it only proposes to change the way the state constitution is amended, it has far reaching consequences for future ballot issues. One of those is the hot-button issue of abortion coming up for a vote this November with the possibility of ending up in the Ohio Constitution; I, however, do not think that the Constitution should be used as a legislative tool (I have always voted, however, when Article XVI, §3 is on the ballot). Keep in mind that a NO vote on Issue 1 (don't make the change) maintains the current amendment process while a YES vote (do strengthen the amendment requirements) tightens up the process. Given the current focus on abortion, I wanted to share some insights from the teaching of our Church with regard to abortion and the arguments which are often proposed to support it as a "right." I begin by stating that all of these arguments are specious. Specious is a word that means the same thing as does space, the emptiness between objects. The arguments for a right to abortion are all full of empty space. Unfortunately, a misunderstanding exists as to what a right is; consequently, the typical arguments begin with a major error behind them.

So, what is a right? There are two species of right. The most fundamental (and the one behind all of the specious rights I'll be discussing later) is the natural, human right. All humans, regardless of age, gender, race, creed, and ethnicity have rights because they are human or universal. If some group, race, creed or whatever does not have one, then it is not an ordinary human right and falls into the next category. The second is a grant of privilege to some particular group (for example, those over the age of 18 in Ohio can vote, smoke, marry, etc.) by those who can, or think they can, grant that privilege. So, let's get to the claimed rights to an abortion.

Argument 1 - There is a reproductive right – Well, that's true, but when we speak of rights (and this one is a natural human right everybody has), we also have to speak of the consequences and obligations which are attached to the exercise of the right. The Church would not argue that we humans have rights to reproduction; in fact that's one of the essential aspects of being a human person, although the Church will tell us that the exercise of the right, because of the consequence and obligations which come along with its exercise, should be reserved to the married state where those consequences and obligations can best be met.

The reproductive right is exercised during ordinary human intercourse and the Church would – again in the married state – defend that right. Anything after that moment is no longer the right but the consequences and/or obligations that accrue from its exercise. From my high school biology class, I learned that it is quite possible (consequential) that when exercising the reproductive right, a conception may occur so before exercising the right, I had better be aware of the obligations resulting from a conception.

Unfortunately, there is a mistaken sense that what occurred during intercourse continues as an extension of the original right without any connection to the consequences (pregnancy) and obligations (childbirth and child rearing). In part, this is the result of a subject I mentioned last summer: the infamous entitlement culture. Because we feel entitled to the freedom to engage in actions, we deny or shirk any necessity to live with the consequences of those actions since we're entitled to one part of the whole but none of the others.

Because the natural right ends when intercourse ends and the obligations then begin, the argument that an abortion is an aspect of the reproductive right falls far short of the trajectory of the truth. Since "rights" are such a repetitive claim relevant to abortion and they are a complicated subject, next week my "rights" discussion will continue with references to the role of the founding fathers and the familiar documents they created identifying and discussing our "inalienable rights."

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. You or someone you know looking to get rid of a working refrigerator? The parish office refrigerator has come to the end of it's life.

We will be in need of a couple of volunteers to help us disassemble and remove the current refrigerator from the office. If you are interested in the broken refrigerator you are more than welcome to have it. Please know that several attempts have been made to repair it.

Each year, the Diocese of Toledo is required to undergo an audit to ensure that it is in compliance with the articles of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. Bishop Daniel Thomas is pleased to announce that the Diocese was found to be in full compliance with the requirements in the Charter following the audit for fiscal year 2019-2020.

The Diocese of Toledo remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric or by any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and to contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880; or to write to the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue; Toledo, Ohio 43604.

We are looking for a few volunteers to water our INSIDE plants. This may be a once a week chore, maybe before or after the Mass you attend. If you are able to be the inside waterer, see Nicole through the week or Mary Jo on the weekend!

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

The Eucharist and the Priesthood

"There can be no Eucharist without the priesthood, just as there can be no priesthood without the Eucharist."¹

These words of Pope Saint John Paul II have echoed over and over again in my daily prayer during this season of Eucharistic Revival. It has been clear to me since becoming your bishop that here in the diocese of Toledo, there is a deep and evident love for the Eucharist, and a deep and evident love for the priesthood! Yet many of our faithful may not be aware that the number of priests in our diocese has been declining for several years; that many priests are now serving multiple parishes, some to the point of exhaustion; and that, in the past few years, the number of diocesan seminarians has also declined.

In some ways, these trends should be no surprise. The past two decades have seen a sharp decline in Catholic parish participation throughout North America and Europe. In our diocese, Mass attendance declined 47% from 2005 to 2022. During that period, 37% fewer children were baptized and 45% fewer people received Confirmation. These numbers clearly indicate that there are not as many people practicing the faith in our diocese, which means there is a smaller pool of possible candidates for the priesthood and subsequently a lower number of seminarians.

The reality of our diocese mirrors national trends. From 2014 to 2021, the total number of seminarians in the USA decreased 22%.² Vocation directors cite many contributing factors that go beyond the obvious rise in secularization and the priority shifts of a generation averse to lifelong commitment and riddled by "fear of missing out" (FOMO). The tense and confusing ecclesial climate seems to be discouraging young men from answering the priestly call. The scandal of priestly sexual abuse has also caused hesitation about entering seminary. Certainly, the COVID-19 pandemic had a negative impact: the inability of the vocations office to host typical in person events, and the rise in anxiety for young adults, were obstacles to healthy discernment.

So what should we do? With the tide rushing forcefully in the wrong direction, should we just give up? St. Paul's words come to mind: "where sin increased, grace abounded all the more" (Romans 5:20). Do we believe that He can and will curb the tide? Do we believe that He can make the difference? Do we believe and hope in Him to draw men to the priestly vocation? We believe!

Salvation history teaches us that whenever humanity moves away from God, an abundance of divine grace is available to the faithful who are open to it. The Lord uses the service of his prayerful people to lead humanity back to God. Here and now, we are the people the Lord is depending on to open the eyes of hearts and minds to see the reality of our situation and to address head on our need for priests. nlt takes the joyful, faithful witness of priests themselves coupled with the support and encouragement of all the lay faithful.

Jesus encouraged his disciples not to give into despair when faced with small numbers of ministers and a culture greatly in need of His message. "When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:36-38). Jesus taught His disciples that sometimes, the only solution is prayer and fasting! Thus, I invite every Catholic in the Diocese of Toledo to do two things to implore the Lord of the harvest for more laborers to be ordained to shepherd the Church in our diocese: these are simple, practical, and doable!

First, I ask every Catholic to pray one Hail Mary per day for an increase of priestly vocations. I especially encourage families to add this Hail Mary to their prayer before meals, regular daily prayers or family rosary, as a way of encouraging their children to seek God's call for their life. Mother Mary will intercede for us with her Son for an increase of priests in the Person of her Son!

Second, I ask all who are able to offer some form of intentional fasting or penance each Friday for this same intention. The fasting or penance might be foregoing a meal, abstaining from meat, avoiding snacks between meals, or some other small sacrifice that can be united with Jesus' loving offering of his life for the salvation of the world on Good Friday, the very sacrifice we encounter in the Eucharist.

At a diocesan level, I kindly request that every parish offer some time of Eucharistic Adoration each week for the intention of an increase in priestly vocations. This might be a new addition to the parish calendar, or it might mean encouraging prayers for vocations during an already scheduled period of weekly Exposition and Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Many of our recent seminarians have come from parishes where Eucharistic Adoration for vocations is regularly offered. I also ask every parish in the diocese to pray specifically for an increase of priestly vocations each week at Mass during the Universal Prayer.

Without an increase of priestly vocations, we risk not having enough priests to celebrate the Eucharist. In challenging times like ours, faithful Catholics need the Eucharist more than ever to sustain them in their mission of sharing the faith with the large number of people in northwest Ohio who are distant from Christ and his Church. The Eucharist and the priesthood are inseparable.

While the challenges we face may seem daunting, I ask that you approach your prayer and fasting/penance for priestly vocations with hope. Just think, if every parish in our diocese sent just one man to the seminary every ten years, we would have 122 seminarians over a ten-year period. If just half of them were ordained priests, we would be ordaining an average of over 6 men per year! This would be a huge shift from our current 20-year average of less than 2 ordinations per year. Dare we hope?

The word "revival" comes from the Latin verb re-vivere, meaning "to live again" and "to restore to life." During this parish year of the Eucharistic Revival, please join me in praying that enthusiasm for priestly vocations might be born anew in the hearts, minds and souls of young men throughout our diocese, leading to a generous response to Christ. We pray that their future ministry, especially their celebration of the Eucharist, will empower many people in Northwest Ohio to live out their Catholic faith with renewed zeal. "There can be no Eucharist without the priesthood, just as there can be no priesthood without the Eucharist."
