ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

We are continuing to dive into Irish history because so much of what we know as “Church” derives from the Irish experience. You may recall that I mentioned St. Patrick establishing many cathedrals. We ordinarily think of a cathedral as big, looming, dark building which can accommodate several thousand people (Queen of the Most Holy Rosary could easily seat three thousand if chairs were put in the side aisles – there are European cathedrals which can ‘seat’ ten thousand because everybody stands through the entire service); however, we should not think of Patrick’s cathedrals on that scale. Keep in mind that he was converting pagans so there weren’t a lot of Catholics around in his time. However, he felt the need for the bishop to be present to the people, much like Pope Francis recommends today that the Shepherd smell like the Sheep. Cathedrals of his era were small, comfortable places where the bishop could mingle with his flock and allow them to know him as he knew them. Patrick understood the imagery of the Body of Christ and wanted that Body to know everyone who was part of it in the local Church. Here’s a photo of Ardmore Cathedral on the site of an oratory built by St. Declan. The cathedral was built around 1200 so it’s easy to see by comparing to the tombstones around it that there still weren’t a lot of people in a diocese!

A much older oratory (a church not generally used as a parish church so without a baptistry) is that of St. Finbar at Gougane Barra built much earlier. The trees growing in it give a good notion of its dimensions but in case you wonder, it’s about forty feet long and twelve wide. It dates to the sixth century.

These differences do not diminish the feats of having built cathedrals but make them easier for us to understand those impressive accomplishments.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God’s children, their dignity as God’s own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor’s stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Children's Liturgy has begun the summer break! Still looking for helpers to take a Sunday when we resume. Only qualification, must love children and love Jesus! Call the office if interested.

Registration for religious education will be in September, but if someone asks for information in the meantime, please get a name and address, and we will send them some preliminary information! Thanks to all of our "disciples"!

Thanks so much to our gardeners, arrangers, putting up and taking down folks! Our grounds and church look like someone cares...cause we do!

Friends are asking if Fathers' Day will also include a bake sale, of course! So, again we're asking for bakers and buyers. You all outdid yourselves for Mothers' Day! Hoping we'll have the same great response for Dads' Day...and thanks!

Update on Eucharistic ministers refresh and begin! The session for those who are interested in becoming Eucharistic ministers, and renewal for existing ministers, will be Wednesday June 19th at 6 PM at church. This session will last about an hour, and will include the procedures we use during mass, as well as information on taking the Eucharist to our homebound family and friends. Please plan on attending!

We will have Hospitality this Sunday, June 2nd and Sunday June 9th. We will then take our summer break, and Hospitality will be replaced by ICE CREAM Social beginning on Saturday July 6th and Sunday July 7th! Cones, floats, sundaes, and a time to talk....after both masses! These will be held every other weekend until September!

For many years we were part of the Ecumenical Group CROSS, and had several shared functions. One of our strongest participants was St. Lucas Lutheran church at 745 Walbridge. At their helm was Pastor Martin Billmeier, who, after 30 years with his parishioners, is retiring effective June 30th. We will have a card in the back of church if you would like to sign wishing him well in his future ministries!

Have you moved?
If yes, contact Nicole!

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

Behind the Scenes: Deaneries and Deans

If you've ever been to a play or musical, whether a high school, summer community theatre, or even a national production, you know well that in addition to the actors or performers on stage, there are countless other persons "behind the scenes" who are responsible for providing for the good order, cast support and smooth transitions. Folks "behind the scenes" include the stage crew, the set designers, the orchestra, the costume and makeup staff, the directors, assistants and prompters, the lighting and sound crew. In any production, countless people whose roles are principally hidden behind the scenes fill invaluable roles, and in the end, the production would be impossible without them.

While no analogy is perfect, I believe the play or musical production comparison is a valid one when trying to explain and highlight some of the less evident roles played by members of our local Church, clergy, consecrated religious and laity alike, who serve in the often hidden behind the scenes roles, who assist the diocesan bishop in providing for the good order, the ecclesial support and the fruitful functioning of diocesan life! Of course, principal among these are the close collaborators of the priest College of Consultors, of the mostly lay Diocesan Finance Council and of our Pastoral Center staff, all of whom play very significant, but often hidden support roles.

But, as we are all aware, the place where so much is accomplished pastorally in a diocese is for sure not on a stage, but in parishes in the geographic regions throughout our diocese called Deaneries. And the persons who fulfill important roles in the Deaneries include the parish priests who serve as Deans and as members of the Presbyteral Council, the parish lay faithful who serve as Deanery representatives on the Diocesan Pastoral Council, together with representatives of the consecrated religious, clergy and various diocesan groups, including young adults.

Now truth be told, if you asked "Mary and John in the pew" of any of our parishes, they would likely be hard pressed to identify the Dean of their local Deanery or the Deanery representative! In fact, it would not be at all surprising if many of our faithful, indeed the vast majority, would not even be able to define what a Deanery or Dean is! Thus, the purpose of this column: simply to highlight the purpose of our Deaneries, to announce the re-configuration and renewal of our Deaneries, and to offer a glimpse into just what happens "behind the scenes" with our Deaneries, Deans and Deanery representatives. This is in line with our Diocesan Intentional Planning Process and flows from our Diocesan Strategic Plan. Visit: toledodiocese.org/diocesan-news/deaneries.

A Deanery is a geographic area comprising Catholic parishes and institutions, overseen by a diocesan priest with the title Dean. Deans, who are elected by their brother priests and who constitute in large part the Presbyteral Council, play a crucial role in coordinating common pastoral activities (for example religious education, parish missions, youth ministry, penance services, and faith formation), fostering collaboration among parishes, and supporting fellow priests. Each Deanery has a lay representative on the Diocesan Pastoral Council, a body composed in large part of lay faithful from our parishes that advises me on pastoral concerns and provides feedback on ministerial initiatives. Through the Diocesan Presbyteral Council (priests) and the Diocesan Pastoral Council (laity), the consultative bodies with whom I meet regularly, I receive insights and feedback from Deanery parishes as I consult with representatives from around the diocese, engaging in fruitful conversations about the pastoral care of our people.

Diocesan Pastoral Council

The Deanery is intended to foster unity, cooperation, and solidarity among the faithful, strengthening the bonds of communion in the Catholic Church. It is a testament to the Church's commitment to local outreach and pastoral care, ensuring that every community receives the spiritual guidance and support it needs to thrive. The Deanery also reminds the local communities that they are part of a wider church, both the local church and the Universal Church. As you can surmise, in fact, the work of Deaneries, Deans and the Diocesan Pastoral Council are, in essence, and very practically, an exercise of subsidiarity and synodality, already provided for in Church law!

We need look no further than the Church's own Code of Canon Law to see spelled out the definition and meaning of Deaneries, Deans, and the Diocesan Pastoral Council! As I often say: "go to the sources!" For those who enjoy the research, since there is not enough room here for a fuller explanation, you need only go to Cann. 553-555 (Deans or Vicars Forane), Can. 374 (Deaneries or Vicariates Forane), and Cann. 511-514 (Diocesan Pastoral Council).

Having considered the history of the number of Deaneries over the last 40 years, our current decision has reduced the total number of Deaneries in the diocese from fifteen to twelve. The decision to reduce Deaneries takes into account demographic changes within the diocese, as well as the decrease in the number of active priests and parishes. This restructuring aims to streamline operations, enhance collaboration, and ensure that each Deanery has a sustainable number of participants to be pastorally effective. This change will assist Deans, priests, and parish staffs in revitalizing Deanery functions and improving the quality of meetings. We have also published a Deanery Guidance Document to assist in the renewal process of our Deaneries. Broad consultation was conducted at Deanery meetings, at Presbyteral Council and Diocesan Pastoral Council meetings, where input and recommendations were received and reviewed regarding the plan for our Deaneries.

So, Deaneries and Deans may often be "behind the scenes," along with the Diocesan Pastoral Council, but they play a genuine and valuable consultative role, representing the geographic regions where the members reside, and the parochial life of that area is lived out. They serve to assist in informing the bishop on the pastoral realities pertaining to their locale, in coordinating common pastoral activities, and in addressing pastoral needs in a collaborative and intentional manner. With you, I am most grateful to all our priests who are Deans and our other priests who serve on our Presbyteral Council, as well as to all the lay representatives of our Deaneries and others, including clergy and consecrated religious, who serve on our Diocesan Pastoral Council. Please pray with me that the new configuration of our Deaneries may serve to increase how effective, efficient and evangelical our pastoral work together will be going forward, in providing for the good order, the ecclesial support and the fruitful functioning of diocesan life!

Sacrifice | The Catholic Parent | Episode 4

It's an understatement to say marriage demands a lot. Family life and raising children demand even more. Isn't fulfilling those duties enough? Why does the Church teach that we should fast, and what does that mean practically? In this episode, Sr. Rachel Marie discusses these questions alongside the real-life witness of Catholic families. Turning to the story of St. Gianna Beretta Molla will leave you with the confidence needed to practice fasting as a family.
