ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Last week I briefly discussed early Irish cathedrals. Because the Church was made illegal by the English, there were no great Irish Catholic cathedrals until fairly late into the nineteenth century. Most were relatively small because the Catholic population represented the bulk of those immigrating to other lands following the potato famine (many became the heritage families of Immaculate Conception, St. Patrick and Good Shepherd). An example of this is the cathedral at Cloyne, a village not far from Midleton which you may know as the home of Jameson's distillery. The cathedral was founded around 580 by St. Coleman and eventually taken over by the Church of Ireland. The Catholic cathedral, now high atop the city of Cobh (pronounced Cove), is some ten miles from Cloyne but the diocese is still that of Cloyne and is considered the seat of the Bishop of Cork City. The cathedral was built around the same time as Immaculate Conception, St. Anne and St. Patrick. Its steeple cross would have been the last vestige of Europe seen by anyone on the fantail of Titanic who was looking back toward the embarkation point. Cobh was selected because it had become a major port city and the cathedral honors St. Coleman.

Many people who visit Ireland want to see St. Patrick Cathedral in Dublin which they believe to be the Catholic cathedral. It isn't. Built during the Catholic ascendancy in the 12th Century and dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God and St. Patrick in 1191, it was taken over by the Anglicans and eventually turned over to the Church of Ireland. Like Washington National Cathedral, it is considered the nation's cathedral so has no bishop (he presides at nearby Christ Church cathedral) and is administered by a board which includes prelates of all the major Churches in Ireland, including the Catholic archbishop of Dublin. Prior to the creation of the Republic, many Catholics demanded its return but today it serves as a sacred space for all Irish, those in Ireland and those of us here in Ohio.

As of now there is no Catholic cathedral in Dublin. St. Mary's, a few blocks from the General Post Office (where the 1916 Easter Rising was headquartered), serves as a pro-cathedral. In 2023 the archbishop petitioned Rome to make St. Mary's a basilica and create a cathedral at St. Andrew near Trinity College. Both are magnificent worship spaces built in the latter part of the nineteenth century.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Summer break, but we would like to have a "Mini Bible School" for our younger kids! New idea, let's give it a try! Kids would come to church at 10:45AM, before Sunday mass, and session lasts until 10:45...just before mass starts. The sessions would be every other Sunday, beginning July 7th...same Sundays as our Ice Cream Socials. Mom or Dad could drop the kids off at side parking lot door at 10:15, and join them for Mass at 10:45. And ICE CREAM to follow. A little bible story....a little singing...could be fun!

Eucharistic Ministry training and update: Wednesday June 19th at 6 PM here at church. Side parking lot door will be open. There will be a video regarding Eucharist, as well as information on "how to" at Mass, and taking Eucharist to the homebound. Helpful information!

Registration for religious education will be in September, but if someone asks for information in the meantime, please get a name and address, and we will send them some preliminary information. Thanks to all of our "disciples"!

Terra Bundy & Corbyn Davis, through baptism you became a member of God's family. Welcome!

Terra, Christ is the bread of life and the cup of eternal salvation, helping you to always live as a child of God. Congratulations and prayers!

Happy Father's Day!

Happy Fathers Day! We welcome and honor our guys who have had a role in nurturing kids: dads, uncles, older brothers. Thank you!

Dad's Day bake sale after mass! Stop and shop. Tasty treats from the Darby bakers! Always fresh, always tasty!

To Be a Pilgrim

An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today.

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

This engaging series delves into the lives of the saints who led the Catholic Counter-Reformation. In this episode, learn about St. Thomas More, a patient witness to the faith who endured a heroic martyrdom at the hands of Henry VIII.

Episode 124: Dryness in Prayer

Probably the most important relationship in our life is our relationship with God, and we are building that through prayer. Prayer is real — it's for everyone, but we know that prayer is not always easy. Sometimes it can even be really hard.
