ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

I recently had a parishioner ask me about the case of the deacon in Detroit who was reprimanded for celebrating baptism by saying “we baptize you. . .” Since that got me to thinking about the sacraments in general, over the next few weeks I will be offering some insights into the seven sacred moments which make Jesus truly present. I hope you all know them: the sacraments of initiation are Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. The sacraments of healing are Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick and the sacraments of vocation are Marriage and Orders. If you follow along over the series, you’ll discover why there isn’t an eighth and never will be. Remember that for the ancients, 7 was a mystical number that meant perfection so we might conclude that seven sacraments is the perfect number.

The sacraments were given to the ecclesial community formed by the disciples and belong to the Church. How and when any of them can be celebrated is generally left to the determination of the Church through its official leadership currently vested in the Curia in Rome. The one exception to this general rule is Baptism which can be administered by anyone at any time although we should not willy-nilly be baptizing people; most Catholics understand that so may undertake a private baptism in danger of death (commonly at the neonatal intensive care unit by a nurse or other person, but a record is kept of anything like that).

The sacraments require the simultaneous conjunction of matter (the physical “stuff” which symbolizes the spiritual reality) and the form, or words which make the reality present. Since the form, or words, are determined by the Church, the individual celebrant is not allowed to make up some words which he or she might think does the job. Form is an external assurance that the same effects are generated every time just as the matter (those required physical materials) are always the same. If we want Baptism to make the presence of God come alive for the baptized, then we must make sure we perform the rite exactly the same every time and everywhere so the form, regardless of the language being used, will always consist of the same words. The Detroit case came up because the words weren’t the same as those being used universally.

The same can be said of the matter which must be the same everywhere; consequently there are precise requirements on what the physical materials are to be and there should be no variations. I’ll demonstrate how this works as we take a walk through the sacraments in the next few editions of these letters.

To Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God’s children, their dignity as God’s own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor’s stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

PRIESTHOOD ORDINATION

Father Chris Turner & Father Jacob Livecchi were ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, June 22, 2024. Meet the newest priests of the Diocese of Toledo!

Father Jacob Livecchi

My name is Dcn. Jacob Livecchi and my home parish is St. Ignatius in Oregon. I grew up in a large Catholic family of ten kids (I am number five). I was homeschooled and after graduating from high school in 2005, I went to the University of Toledo. After one year of college where I studied visual arts, I felt the Lord calling me to something more. I felt within my heart the Lord calling me to discern the priesthood. So, I entered college seminary at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus studying philosophy. I finished my Bachelor of Philosophy and graduated in 2019 from Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. I then began my theological studies at the Pontifical North American College in Rome. I graduated in June 2022 with a Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University. I spent my internship year serving at three parishes: St. John the Evangelist in Delphos, St. John the Baptist in Landeck, and St. Patrick in Spencerville. At the end of my internship year, I was ordained a transitional deacon. Last year I returned to Rome to complete my last year of seminary formation.

As I near priesthood ordination I am filled with excitement and gratitude. I am honored and humbled by what God has done in my life with my simple yes to follow his will. I entered seminary not convinced I wanted to be a priest, today I could never imagine doing anything else. I am also aware that I am not approaching this great sacrament on my own strength. I am able to approach the sacrament priesthood because of all the prayers, support, and formation that I have received from all of you, but most of all because of God's great grace.

Please keep our newest priests and all our priests in your prayers!

PRIESTHOOD ORDINATION

Father Chris Turner & Father Jacob Livecchi were ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, June 22, 2024. Meet the newest priests of the Diocese of Toledo!

Father Chris Turner

My name is Deacon Chris Turner and my home parish is St. John XXIII in Perrysburg. I am the son of John and Theresa, the brother of Sara, and the uncle of Reese and Lucy. I graduated from Central Catholic High School in 2004 and went to The Ohio State University following that. My plan was to run a large resort or hotel, and as a result, I received a degree in Hospitality Management in 2008. However, God had other plans, and upon graduation he called me to serve in youth ministry instead. I was the youth minister at St. Catherine Parish in Toledo for two years and then moved to Atlanta to become Events Director for Life Teen International. After serving in that role for three years, I missed parish life and became a youth minister again at St. Ann in Marietta, GA. It was at St. Ann that I fell in love with parish life and first felt the call to become a priest. While I loved living in Atlanta, Toledo was always home to me and I knew I needed to go back home to discern my vocation. As a result, I entered seminary formation in 2017 for the Diocese of Toledo. I am forever grateful for my seven years of formation, and I have especially enjoyed the various parish assignments I have received over the years. I am reminded of one of my favorite quotes from St. John Paul II: "It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you." I have certainly found this to be true. Jesus and His Church have made my life so much better, and I am so thankful He has called me to serve the Church in this way.

Please keep our newest priests and all our priests in your prayers!
