ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Some weeks ago, I began a series on sacraments focusing on the matter (the things necessary) and form (words necessary) of the seven sacraments. After some intervening weeks of commentary on the Eucharist, I now return to the series with treatment of the 2 Sacraments of Vocation. Marriage and Orders. Today I'll look at marriage

As a sacrament, marriage belongs to the universal Church so ought not be thought of as a private event between the parties getting married. In a particular way marriage binds the couple to one another but also binds them to the Church. Marriage as a sacrament is for the fully initiated which means the baptized. We believe, as did St. Paul, that there is one baptism for all so it doesn't matter where the person was baptized – as long as the matter and form are proper to baptism, a marriage between any two baptized people is a sacrament whether they know it or believe it or not. A sacramental marriage can only exist between two baptized people, one of whom is a man and the other who is a female. That's because the Church believes that any marriage, sacramental or not, has certain natural "ingredients," one of which is the ability without any external assistance to attempt to make a baby – that takes some cooperation between a male and a female.

The sacrament is administered by the parties, not by the priest or deacon who witnesses the event. Each must have an intention to make a marriage. Mother Nature defines marriage, as the Bishop's Conference writes, "according to the plan of creation." To be a sacrament, two baptized people, a man and a woman must intend a permanent faithful relationship designed for the good of the spouse and always open to acts which could lead to a baby and then – if that baby comes along – raising it to be a wholesome part of society.

The matter of the sacrament is the couple, that man and woman who desire to be married (but may not desire a sacrament since many baptized people belong to Christian Churches which don't make the connection between marriage and a specific sacrament – a baptized man and a baptized woman celebrating a marriage at the Elvis Chapel in Vegas are also celebrating a sacrament if they intend a natural marriage).

The form associated is different but similar for Catholics and other baptized individuals. In general, the form is the words of consent. For Catholics those words must be publicly stated (aloud or by sign) in front of two witnesses and a recorder (the priest or deacon). The "vows" of marriage must include a specific mention of the natural "ingredients" which make a natural marriage.

Here's one of the suggestions the Church offers people: "I, Horatio, take you, Esmerelda, to be my wife. I promise to be faithful to you in good times and in bad, all the days of my life." Each party makes this same promise which spells out permanence, fidelity and the good of the spouse. The acts which might bring about a baby are presumed as the acts of love shared between the parties as they undertake the good of the spouse over and above their own.

Despite contemporary challenges to some of these positions, they remain fundamental in the Catholic church.

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

Registration forms for OCIA are available in church now at the information tables in the back and front of the church. Interested in learning about the Catholic faith? Received some of your sacraments but never been confirmed? Fill out one of the forms and either drop in the basket during collection, give to Mary Jo at the masses, or turn in at the office Monday through Friday. Looking forward to hearing from you!

You will soon see the yard signs around church mentioning sign up for CCD! Please ask for a registration form at either of the weekend masses (4 pm Saturday or 11:00 am Sunday)! Looking forward to seeing you all!

Please note: We have been asked to pray for political candidates, posting names in the bulletin or as part of our Universal Prayer at Mass. Thank you for your understanding.

We welcome the faculty, staff, and families of Queen of Apostles! We pray for the teachers as they prepare to teach and the students prepare to learn. May God Bless them in all that they do this school year.

Update on Old Southend construction:
At a meeting this month, members of the city's administrative departments, gave information and answered questions regarding the ongoing Broadway Ave. construction. The most pertinent right now is, at the end of August, traffic flow on Broadway will be reversed. This means that the flow now which heads into downtown, will be done for now, and traffic flow will open down toward the zoo. The second point is, that the intersection at South and Broadway will close around that time, but Western Ave. will be reopened across Broadway. There is another meeting on Thursday Aug. 29 at the Sofia Quintero Center on Broadway at 5:30 pm. All are welcome...stay informed!

CHRIST CHILD SOCIETY OF TOLEDO

WHERE LOVE LEADS TO ACTION

The Christ Child Society of Toledo (CCS Toledo) is welcoming new members to their all-volunteer, non-profit organization. The Christ Child Society founder, Mary Virginia Merrick, advocated that personal contact with the needy for the love of Christ develops true charity and gives it vital force. The number of children in our community living in poverty and in need of resources is growing. We invite you to consider becoming a member to help us reach out to more children here in northwest Ohio. We currently have over 200 members who donate over 10,000 service hours annually.

CCS Toledo volunteer members can choose to participate in a variety of programs and projects that we offer to serve the needs of underserved children. CCS Toledo's largest program is CLOTH-A-CHILD. Each Fall the organization purchases and distributes over 2,000 new winter coats, hats and gloves to children from birth to eighth grade. We work with local schools and social service agencies to identify the kids in need. Each child also receives an age-appropriate new book with their coat to promote literacy. Last year we included a hygiene bag to the school children from fourth to eighth grade who received a coat. The bag contains essentials such as toothbrush & toothpaste, soap, deodorant, lip balm, wash cloths, shampoo, laundry detergent sheets and more.

Our LAYETTE program supplies a newborn layette package full of essential items for underserved new mothers to take home with their newborns. We supply over 1,000 layettes each year to local hospitals and social service agencies for distribution to moms in need of these resources. Tutoring students in Reading and Math skills at four local elementary schools is a favorite program for CCS Toledo members. Running and staffing the school libraries at two of the schools is also a CCS Toledo program.

CCS Toledo offers additional programs that volunteer members are involved in. There is something for everyone! Our motto is "Nothing is ever too much to do for a child". CCS Toledo members joyfully make this a reality! For more information on joining the Christ Child Society of Toledo, visit <https://www.christchildsof Toledo.org/contact-us>.
