ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Last week I mentioned the decline in the number of priests, and I want to be clear that the decline is largely restricted to the so-called “First World,” the wealthy nations like the US, Europe, and parts of South America. In much of the world where the issues facing the “First World” are less prevalent right now, seminaries are full and ordinations remain high. Let’s take a very superficial look at why that might be the case before we go on to look at how the Synod on Synodality may address the problem in terms of activating more involvement by the non-ordained.

The first world has, as Bishop Hoffman warned the four of us being ordained in 1983, “arrived” and does not need God. I don’t think any of us reading this letter doubt that. Other ‘gods’ have become far more attractive in our highly materialistic, technologically-oriented culture. Movie stars, performers, and sports icons have replaced the saints; power, prestige, profit and prominence have become the pilgrim goals of many; addictions to mind-altering drugs or technologies have replaced the worship of God.

Not that long ago most Catholics could easily pull a rosary out of a pocket or purse and meditate on God’s intervention in human life. Today the rosary has been replaced by the cellphone and social media. On my return from Ireland, I had a long layover in Washington and watched an entire waiting room sit in near silence staring at the glowing face of a technological god. There was no social interaction at all. Children weren’t talking to parents who weren’t talking to one another.

When we factor in that families today, for a lot of reasons, are much smaller, there is no longer a pool of young men available for the Spirit to call! Not that long ago parents watched for the movement of the Spirit and actually fostered vocations. That is no longer the case. I have often heard a parent admit that “I think Johnnie has a real call to priesthood, but, Father, I want grandchildren so I’m discouraging that vocation.”

It’s also much more difficult for a young person (or an older one) to be accepted for seminary today. Over the past few decades, faith formation has seen a serious decline so that many young people, despite twelve years of religious classes, have very little real sense of faith and its spiritual dimension. Pope Francis has lamented this in several of the documents he’s issued and suggests this leads to a person altogether failing to hear and respond to the Holy Spirit. On the other side of that coin are the numerous psychological issues impinging on young people. Where depression and suicidal ideation are increasingly common, finding the stable population of young people for formation is increasingly difficult.

Many bishops have attempted to slow the decline in numbers of priests by inviting foreign priests to minister in their dioceses. Unfortunately, many Americans, having forgotten their own immigrant ancestry, are unwelcoming of these able men, citing accents, even skin color as reason enough to go somewhere else. That inhospitable attitude is the external expression of the failure of the Church to adequately empower the laity to their role in a truly universal Church which embraces all. Such behavior should be an embarrassment to all of good faith.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. We have begun, but you're not too late! The month of September, classes have been at Historic St. Patrick in their meeting room next to the altar. In October, classes will be at Immaculate Conception, in the meeting room on the garage side of the church. Classes are on Thursdays from 7:00-9:00 giving time for discussion and questions. There's a break midway, and light refreshments, so the time goes very quickly. Please sign up today, or call the parish office for more information (419-243-1829). We'd love to have you join us!

Join our Padre Pio Prayer Group (PPPG-CK) each FIRST SATURDAY (10/5/24) monthly for the 7:30 AM Rosary, 8 AM Mass, Anointing of the Sick, Meeting at Christ the King Church, 4100 Harvest Lane, Toledo, OH 43623. Last chance to pre-register for CCD! We will be in the back of church to help you. Classes begin this Tuesday, Oct. 1 at 6 pm. Use the side church door by the garage to enter. We are so excited to begin again!!

World Mission Sunday will be celebrated October 19-20, 2024. The theme for this year's Mission Sunday is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet" (cf. Mt 22:9). World Mission Sunday is a global effort for the entire Church. All Catholics of the world join into one community of faith to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, an area that covers more than half of the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Are you interested in scheduling a Mass intention and not sure how to do so? Give Nicole a call in the office, 419-243-1829, and she will be glad to assist you!

Please Note: Shortly after the first of October fifty (50) randomly selected parishioners will be receiving an email from the Vicar for Priests asking a few questions regarding your pastor. This is part of a required review at the end of a six-year term. It's your chance to comment on how well or not I am doing as pastor and shepherd of the parish. If you receive an e-mail, please take time to fill it out and return it to the Vicar. And thanks. ~Msgr. Chris

Thanks to those who helped welcome Deacon Paul and his wife, Mary this past Sunday! It was quite the feast, and no shortage of food. Thanks to those who donated and helped. What a great family Darby is!

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

"A Revival. A Congress. What's Next?"

Already for over two years' time we have been engaged in our National Eucharistic Revival! The focus began on the diocesan level, then moved to the parish level, and recently culminated on the national level with the National Eucharistic Congress held this summer in Indianapolis July 17-21 at the Indiana Convention Center and Lucas Oil Stadium. Now some people are asking "So what's next?" But before answering that question, allow me a moment to share with you my experience of the National Eucharistic Congress!

Over three hundred pilgrims from the Diocese of Toledo traveled to Indianapolis to participate in the Congress, 150 of us together on three buses, and 150 more on their own! We truly represented the richness of our diocese with laity younger and older, students, senior citizens, married couples, single persons, seminarians, consecrated religious, deacons, priests and this bishop! What a deep joy it was to pray with them, share meals with them, participate in the Congress events with them, kneel next to them in silent Eucharistic adoration, laugh and cry with them during the evening revival sessions, and witness with them the outpouring of Eucharistic faith in such an extraordinary event which will, please God, have a lasting impact on all who attended and indeed on our nation.

bishops, priests, seminarians and religious sisters, and even more religious sisters! Most impressively, this was not primarily a group of white-haired folks like me! Thousands upon thousands of young people, young parents and families with babies and young children in arms and in strollers helped us all to recognize and celebrate the vibrancy of the Church in our nation, a Church alive in Christ, our Eucharistic Lord.

Throughout the days of the Congress, we were immersed in the power of Jesus' love flowing from the Holy Eucharist and evident in each day's theme: The Greatest Love Story, Into Gethsemane, This is My Body, and To the Ends of the Earth. There was a palpable sense of the presence of the Lord everywhere you went and everywhere you turned. There was a great exhibit hall where I couldn't walk ten steps without joyfully encountering folks I knew from our own diocese and beyond! One of our pilgrims described the Congress as a massive family reunion! Another remarked that the Congress was the Second Vatican Council realized! It was nothing short of edifying to see endless lines of folks waiting for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, or to enter the exhibits on the Shroud of Turin or Eucharistic Miracles, to visit the Relic Chapel or the Adoration Chapel, to participate in the several service opportunities for the poor, or to wait to enter the nearby local Church designated for 24/7 Adoration! And amid the waiting there was joy, not grumbling, where it was evident people were encountering each other with patience, respect and charity!

And as we "blended into" the over 65 thousand persons gathered, we recognized ourselves as a part of the whole, a representation of Catholics from across the nation, from so many races, languages and ethnic heritages. So many

As a bishop, it was especially edifying to be in the company of so many brother bishops and priests in love with Christ and His people, to concelebrate Mass with them, and to walk with them in the Saturday afternoon Eucharistic procession through the streets of downtown Indy with the thousands of other pilgrims. Walking side by side with Bishop Robert Barron during the procession, how moved I was when I heard a man cry out from the sidewalk: "Bishop Barron, I'm Catholic because of you!" That public witness of faith had one focus, our Eucharistic Lord Jesus, and one purpose, to proclaim the Jesus who is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, in His Church and in His people.

and for those whom I am called to serve.

So "What's next?" The Eucharistic Revival is not over (truth be told, it should never be over)! We're already into the third year: The Year of Going out on Mission. The Eucharistic Congress introduced what's next with the "Walk with One" initiative. Just as Jesus invited people one by one to follow him, each one of us is invited to follow him more closely, and to

The keynote and countless other speakers who inspired us throughout the Congress were a veritable who's who of Catholics from across our nation, whose talks not only moved those present but are even now moving hearts and minds! (If you haven't seen it yet, don't miss Jonathan who plays Jesus on The Chosen, and don't miss the t-shirt he wore!). I know of several families and even parishes who have been hosting "watch parties" to be enriched by the presentations offered at the Congress, and invite you to do the same, as those talks are now available on several social media platforms.

"walk with one" person to a new or renewed experience of God's love. Walking with one is a simple four stage process of accompaniment: 1. Identify someone in a spirit of humility, 2. Intercede for that person in communion with the Holy Spirit, 3. Connect in Eucharistic Friendship and 4. Invite that person on a path most suitable for him or her. It's that simple! (You can find information on this nationwide initiative here: eucharisticrevival.org/wlk-with-one; and on our diocesan engagement here: toledodiocese.org/revival.)

Four encounters particularly struck me. Walking to the opening evening event we were stopped by a cordial evangelical Christian who asked us if we were in town for an event. We shared about the Eucharistic Congress, spent a few minutes in conversation, after which he offered his prayers and support for our time, and I offered our appreciation and prayers, inviting him to "come and see"! Toward the end of the Congress, on the elevator of the hotel where we stayed, I found myself alone in an encounter with one of the staff who asked if I was at the Congress, and then commented that she had worked in the city for years but had never experienced such a positive, uplifting, enthusiastic, kind group of persons! Our pilgrims related that one of our seminarians was modelling how the Eucharistic Jesus moves us to love, by his stopping to encounter the homeless along the route to the stadium with warmth, humility and genuine concern. And at the last Revival Evening with some 65 thousand others in the Stadium, I experienced the grace of an intimate personal encounter with the Eucharistic Jesus who pierced my heart and called me to deeper love for him

So what's next? We are! After the Congress, one of our pilgrim couples wrote to me: "The Congress (Revival) far exceeded our expectations. Our hearts were set on fire for the living Christ in the Blessed Sacrament and our call to share this good news with others. We find that we have this burning desire to share what we have received with others as we seek to walk with one." There is no doubt that each of us knows someone whom we could accompany: back to Catholic faith and practice, to first time attendance at Sunday Mass, into the Catholic faith, into deeper Catholic faith, into belief in themselves and in Christ who saves, accompanying someone thru doubts, questions, or old wounds to embracing Christ and His Church.

Please join me in prayer and in action that, for the spiritual and pastoral health of our diocese, we may each go out as Eucharistic missionaries, embracing the Vision of this National Eucharistic Revival: "A movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist – and sent out on mission 'for the life of the world'."
