ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

I want to continue my lead-up to the Synod on Synodality and what we might expect it to recommend. Last week I briefly discussed the goals of the Second Vatican Council and ended by stating that the pastor was the key element in bringing forth the lay leadership (synodality) envisioned by the Council. The pastor remains the lynchpin even today: his vision and intentions toward involving laity remain a significant reality with which parishes must contend.

The Council understood this and laid out a framework which addressed both pastors then in place and the formation of pastors who would come along over the decades following. A major component was to form a mindset (what Paul VI referred to as a novum habitum cogitandi) or new way of thinking because the old way meant no real involvement at the higher level of leadership. The essential mode of action was supposed to be the delegation of real authority to those who had been trained to accept it; they were prepared to implement the broader goal of recruiting teams of men and women to engage the parish in the life of the community. The bishops returning from Rome were certainly enthused by this concept and began to set in place the ideas and goals but ran into that good old resistance to change: thus things stalled or stuttered along among the much smaller group of laity anxious to assume their proper role in the Church.

Real delegation means the actual transfer of a portion of the pastor's power to team leaders which depends on a couple of things including whether the Pastor has both the humility to realize he isn't the only "expert" in the parish and whether he trusts the person who supposedly has the expertise. Delegation isn't "dumping the responsibility" in anyone's lap but is the considered election of the laity to a full share in the decision-making facet of parish leadership in those areas open to significant lay involvement. If the pastor lacks trust, he may well insist on "second guessing" the team leaders, undermining their authority or diminishing their effectiveness. If the pastor is a micro-manager, he may well pre-empt the team leader unexpectedly or hover nearby to assure that there is no real leadership, only agreement with what the pastor wants. Where delegation has been authentically given, the pastor would trust that his teams and their leaders (1) know what to do, (2) do/did it and (3) pass on their actions to any other team which ought be involved given the Pastoral Council vision (outlined in the parish's strategic plan) for collaborative leadership.

Because many lay leaders were never exposed to authentic delegation and are unfamiliar with the real authority they have been given, they never achieve the potential for growing lay leadership in our parishes; that's why sixty years on we're still attempting to come up with strategies and best practices at the universal level (the Synod on Synodality) which can be modified as needed to fit the specific needs of the various regions and local Churches of the Catholic Ecclesial Community.

To Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

We will have 2 more weeks before registration is CLOSED for CCD! If you have a child, grades 2 through 8, please register on Tuesday evening at 6PM at church. Entrance is the side door by the garage off of Western Ave. Classes last for one hour! These classes are for sacramental preparation and continuing education in your faith as a Catholic.

Kids Liturgy is looking for instructors to conduct the short sessions at the Sunday Mass. These take place during the time of the readings and Homily, so the time for kids is only about 15 minutes. If you would like to be that person, call the office and leave your name and a phone number with Nicole. You would then be given information on the Diocesan certification that is currently taking place. There are resources available for the instructors!

Join us on November 2nd at 3:30 pm as Dan Streeter leads us in the Holy Rosary.

We will again have our book of remembrance at the foot of the altar beginning Nov. 1st. Let's pray for all of our family members who have gone before us.

A Bible reflection/prayer hour will begin a four session series on Monday Nov. 25th at 6:00 PM in the meeting room at church, off of the parking lot. Our first session is: A lesson of love. Please join us! For more information call Mary Jo Pilcher at 419-343-8489.

THANK YOU for your generous response to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. You may stay connected year-round to the Pope's missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.

There are still some kids coats available in the front pew on the Maumee Ave. side of church! Thanks to our parishioners who donated them. Please take one if you have a child who needs a coat.

Please pray for our country at this special time of our elections! We ask the Holy Spirit to guide all of our voters, that the leader who will guide our country with justice and compassion will be elected.

Our Ofrenda (Altar) is setup to honor lost loved ones. Everyone is welcome to bring in a picture of a loved one that has passed and place it on the Ofrenda. You may then take your picture back home the weekend of November 2nd.

Join our Padre Pio Prayer Group (PPPG-CK) each FIRST SATURDAY (11/2/24) monthly for the 7:30 AM Rosary, 8 AM Mass, Anointing of the Sick, and Meeting at Christ the King Church, 4100 Harvest Lane, Toledo, OH 43623.
