ALL ARE WELCOME! A MEMBER OF BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA DEANERY

Dear People of God,

Well, I took it on the chin after my article on appropriate etiquette for receiving communion. Apparently there are a lot of people who insist that their piety trumps that of the universal Church. I was informed that “the Church says we can do it.” Do we know why the Church says we can do it? Most of us don’t and never bother to find out although making use of the USCCB web page, the Vatican site or the wealth of information available on FORMED will easily provide explanations.

As a matter of fact, the Church has an approved and recommended etiquette for reception of the Eucharist. However, rather than fight over it, “because of the hardness of your hearts, Moses allowed it.” Human beings are, if nothing else, stubborn and like to do things their own way, especially in our First World where entitlement is a dominant feature of just about everything we do. There doesn’t have to be a reason for it; we do it because we can and easily fabricate a reason comfortable for what we want. Back in the day it was called rationalization and not looked on favorably, but today it’s quite acceptable. That’s why, even if the kneeler trips the person behind, no one loudly says “don’t do that” to the kneeling person.

On the other hand, all of us should be aware of the proper etiquette in different regions of the United States, or traveling abroad, where things can be very different; we owe it to the people of that place to follow their expectations. I know of a few places where despite being very contemporary and modern, all the people kneel at the rail for communion and I wouldn’t think to do otherwise even though my knees creak and complain doing it. It’s respectful to those who worship there all the time. I know of bishops who expect people to receive on the tongue and I do because I respect the bishop’s role as Apostle. I suppose the ancient rule applies: “When in Rome, do as the Romans do.” We should try to be a community even if the community follows a different path to communion than that with which we might be familiar.

However, I do propose that if you take the Eucharist on the tongue, you open your mouth wide enough to find your tongue and stick it out far enough to place the host on it without having to wet fingers sharing the Christ. That’s the respectful way to treat the people following behind you in the line. Of the many practices in the church, receiving communion is an opportunity to reflect your regard for your fellow communicants.

Fr Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call the church @ 419-243-1829.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. at IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

Hello!

Welcome to Immaculate Conception, where all are truly made a welcome part of our parish family, whether in Ministry, Service, or Leadership. Here, all are God's children, their dignity as God's own affirmed and celebrated. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at (419)243-1829. You can also find registration forms for new parishioners on the visitor's stand at the back of the church or online at www.iccatdarby.org. We hope to see you again soon!

IMPORTANT

I am disheartened to inform the parish that the City of Toledo has stopped us from being able to use the graveled area on Western for parking. Unfortunately, we will need all cars to stay off of it until further notice. We are appealing this decision and hope that we can report back soon with better news.

We truly thank each and everyone of you for your patience and understanding during this time!

The remaining Easter flowers are in the kids' liturgy room, waiting for your green thumb to bring them back next year. Please help yourselves!

Sadly, this also brings a pause in hospitality for the summer....but on the bright side, we will have ice cream beginning July 12 & 13! Always a great time for summer treats and catching up, so we're hoping you can make some of the dates: July 12/13, July 26/27, Aug 9/10, Aug. 23/24th!

Fathers' Day weekend, June 14th and 15th will bring another bake sale, as well as flowers for our dads. Hope you are up for baked treats and celebrating our guys!

The parish office will be closed May 26th. All emails and voicemails will be checked on Tuesday, May 27th.

Join our Padre Pio Prayer Group (PPPG-CK) each FIRST SATURDAY (6/7/2025) monthly for the 7:30 AM Rosary, 8 AM Mass, Anointing of the Sick, and our Meeting afterwards at Christ the King Church, 4100 Harvest Lane, Toledo, OH 43623. Access: 'pppg.org'. Contact Magdalena Skiles (419.356.4208 or email: magdalena@magdalenaskiles.com). Who do you know that needs healing? With our International Padre Pio Prayer Groups exceeding 3,000 active groups, membership exceeds 300,000*. We welcome your intentions in your time of need. Come and join us.

The Diocese of Toledo is in compliance with the articles of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People (Charter) of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Every year, the Diocese dutifully submits the necessary documentation required by the USCCB for a diocese to be in compliance.

Every three years an on-site audit is conducted, when not only all necessary documentation is dutifully submitted, but in addition, Pastoral Center, parish and diocesan school employees are interviewed concerning practices and protocols related to creating and maintaining a safe environment for our children and youth.

The last 3-year audit was conducted in September 2024 and all audited Articles within the Charter were found to be compliant. The next on-site audit will be conducted in 2027.

The Diocese of Toledo remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric, or any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880 or by mail at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

La Diócesis de Toledo está en cumplimiento con los artículos de la Carta para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB).

Cada año, la Diócesis presenta diligentemente la documentación necesaria requerida por la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB, por sus siglas en inglés) para que una diócesis está en cumplimiento. Cada tres años se lleva a cabo una auditoría en el sitio, en la que no solo se presenta debidamente toda la documentación necesaria, sino que, además, se entrevista a los empleados del Centro Pastoral, de las parroquias y de las escuelas diocesanas sobre las prácticas y protocolos relacionados con la creación y el mantenimiento de un entorno seguro para nuestros niños y jóvenes.

La última auditoría de 3 años se realizó en septiembre de 2024. La próxima auditoría en el sitio se llevará a cabo en 2027.

La Diócesis de Toledo mantiene su compromiso de garantizar la protección de los niños y proporcionar un entorno seguro para todos los jóvenes. Si tiene conocimiento de algún abuso que haya sido cometido por un clérigo o por cualquier personal de la Iglesia Católica, se le insta a denunciar con el abuso al departamento de policía de su localidad, Servicios para Niños y al Coordinador Diocesano de Asistencia a Víctimas al (419) 214-4880; o por correo a la siguiente dirección 1933 Spielbusch Avenue; Toledo, Ohio 43604.
